57% of Red's Oil Reserves Destroyed by Strikes—LBJ

Omaha Riot Damage Repaired

McNamara Is Called To Ranch

Conference On Vietnam

Johnson City, Tex (AP) — President Johnson said Tuesday the latest intelligence estimate is that last week's attack on oil depots in North Vietnam destroyed 57% of the oil reserves

Johnson said the same estimates showed that 86% of the storage facilities were hit.

Johnson said officers think both estimates are reasonable.

"I think that every general officer" either in Vietnam or the Pentagon think the action at this time was "required by events of the times," he said

Johnson, at his first televised and obrdcast news conference since last August, said he had called Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to the LBJ Ranch, where the session with newsmen was held, for a conference on tuwar.

Budget Deficit Below Estimate

Johnson City, Tex, (AP)—President Johnson reported Tuesday that the federal budget deficit for fiscal 1966—the government year ended five days ago—was far below the $6 4 billion forecast in January.

Johnson told a news conference at his Texas ranch that it was too early to provide exact figures on the status of federal finances on June 30, but that he could say

First, that fiscal 1966 was the third year in a row in which the red ink spending was below the President's forecast

Second, that the reduction in the predicted deficit was greater than the comparable reduction last year, which he said was $1.5 billion.

Jet Lost Attacking Viet Boats

Yanks Loose 'Fireworks'

Saigon (AP) — Two US Navy jets attacked North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin Tuesday at the cost of one plane. Other American warplanes punished targets and Communist troops inland with unrelenting fury.

The pilot of the downed jet was fished from the water only slightly injured. But two men were reported missing in a U.S. Army Huey helicopter shot down by ground fire 70 miles south of Saigon.

The Communist news agency said a jet was shot down over Thanh Hoa Province in North Vietnam. It did not elaborate.

Fireworks Display

The Navy disclosed a "fireworks" display for the Fourth of July—bombs, bullets and rockets from three attacking groups of planes from the carrier Constellation to "celebrate" American Independence Day.

A hitherto inaccessible barracks at Nam Dinh was blasted.

Other raiders attacked fuel depots, supply dumps and Red trucks in wide sweeps.

Two A4 Skyhawks from the Constellation took off when the wakes of torpedo boats were spotted in the gulf 38 miles at sea in international waters.

Napalm Support

They dropped a flare in the pre-dawn darkness and attacked with rockets. One plane plunged into the sea. Five hours later, the pilot was rescued by a helicopter. Whether the torpedo boats were hit was not reported.

Planes with napalm bombs gave support to advancing U.S. marines who killed 78 Communist soldiers in a bitter battle that started Monday and continued into Tuesday. Heavy artillery aided the company of leathernecks in rooting out a force of between 250 and 300 Reds 17 miles southwest of Da Nang.

Red China loosed a propaganda barrage insisting again that the war cannot stop until the last American has left Vietnam. It said it would retaliate if attacked by U.S. forces for aiding the Vietnam Reds.

U.S. green beret Special Force troops fighting with South Vietnamese at their sides, tangled with a larger force of from 350 to 400 men near the Cambodian border about 70 miles north of Saigon. The Special Forces beat off a mortar attack on their camp at Trai Bi and then went hunting for the enemy.

In Saigon, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky installed a new 80-member military and civilian council to advise his government on economic matters and to assist in pacifying areas reclaimed from the Communists.

Interrogation Guide Sent to All Lawmen

Prepared by Douglas After Recent Decision by High Court

By United Press International

Nebraska Atty. Gen. Clarence Meyer reported he is sending to all state law enforcement officers a slate of questions which should be useful in the interrogation of criminal suspects

Meyer said the list was prepared by Lancaster County Atty. Paul Douglas for use by Lincoln Police Chief Joseph Carroll and County Sheriff Merle Karnopp

Douglas adapted the question format to the Nebraska criminal code from the recommendations made by the U.S. District Attorneys Assn.

Accompanying the questions are what Douglas called "admonishments" made by the U.S. Supreme Court in its recent decision detailing the rights of the accused.

In a series of cases, the high court dug to the heart of the Constitution's Fifth Amendment protecting the right of the individual not to incriminate himself

'Excellent Directive'

The court very plainly said if a person wishes to remain silent, he may, and that an attorney, either his own or a court appointed, can be requested by the accused before undergoing interrogation.

Meyer said the directive laid down for the Lancaster County law officers are excellent.

The list will be sent to other counties, he said, for use by them as a guideline in setting up their own questioning formulas.

Less General

"They can make such use of them as they think will be helpful to their own departments," the attorney general said.

In his directive, Douglas was less general He told the Lancaster lawmen

"May I again advise you to strictly comply with this new found constitutional dimension in the interpretation of the Fifth Amendment by the Supreme Court," he said. "If these rules are not strictly followed, then condemnation will fall upon the police officers."

Here is the list of questions all Nebraska law enforcement officers will be asked to consider when interrogating a suspect in a crime:

—I would like to advice you that I am a police officer. Do you understand that?

—You have a right to remain silent and not make any statements or answer any of my questions. Do you understand that?

—Anything that you may say can be and will be used against you in court. Do you understand that?

—You have the right to consult with a lawyer and have the lawyer with you during the questioning. Do you understand that?

—If you cannot afford a lawyer the court will appoint one to represent you Do you fully understand that?

—Knowing your rights in this matter, are you willing to make a statement to me now?

—Do you willingly waive and do without the services of an attorney at this time?

—Is this statement given freely and voluntarily and without any threats or promises, and is it true to the best of your knowledge?

City Street Financing Needs Aid

'Present Way Can't Do It,' Obering Says

Lincoln Public Works Director Robert Obering has broken the silence surrounding possible means of financing the city's share of the $84 million proposed street improvement program outlined last week

"Our present method of financing can't do it," Obering said. "We're anticipating the Legislature will give cities more help, one way or another."

City officials have previously declined comment concerning the money end of the plan's implementation, but Obering suggested Tuesday four possible "avenues" of finance.

He suggested Lincoln receive a greater share of gasoline tax receipts, or that motor vehicle registration fees be hiked to feed additional revenue into the city.

He said the $500,000 generated annually by wheel tax could be increased by boosting the present $8 fee. But according to Obering, no tax can be hiked to meet all of the added costs. His fourth suggestion was the issuance of general obligation revenue bonds

Obering estimated the proposed street improvement program, which he said would have to be followed "fairly close" to satisfy federal requirements, would require an annual city street spending increase of $1 million over the current $1.5 million yearly outlay.

"This is going to be a continuing 20-year plan," he said, which will be revised and reviewed constantly. But the $84 million price tag "probably won't change," he said, "unless costs increase. If costs change, it may well reach $90 million"

"I think we can meet the needs of the plan if somebody gives us the money," he said. "The question is which one or which ones are going to."

Omaha Mayor Will Meet With Negroes

Rioters Demand Solutions To Near North Side Grievances

Omaha (AP)—Omaha Mayor A. V. Sorensen said Tuesday that there was no longer any doubt that the disorders on Omaha's Near North Side were a racial matter. He had denied it earlier.

Sorensen said he attended a "shouting, boisterous" meeting at a YMCA Monday night with 100 young Negroes represented as among those involved in the disturbances.

Members of the group shouted grievances, he said, including lack of recreational facilities in the area, lack of jobs and a demand that those already arrested be released.

He said he agreed to a more orderly meeting with representatives of the group Tuesday to hear their grievances. He also planned to meet with leaders of the Negro community.

He said the meetings "may change our views" of the situation, but in the meantime Omaha police would continue to operate on an emergency basis. He assumed the National Guard would continue to be available Guardsmen were released to return to their homes Tuesday.

Asked what he thought was at the root of the disorders the mayor ticked off frustration, tension, a desire to be recognized and "a desire to have all the nice things that affluent Americans have."

National Guardsmen were called into Omaha's predominantly Negro Near North Side on the last night of the holiday weekend. They made some arrests, but in contrast to the previous two nights, no violence was reported.

When quiet was restored, police reported 78 arrests—29 of them juveniles—and two officers slightly injured. Officers said apparently 10 business places were targets of looters or window smashers.

Earlier Looting

Looting, vandalism and major disturbances had marked Saturday and Sunday nights in the area of 24th and Lake Sts. Monday night's arrests occurred as the Guardsmen cleared the area on request from city officials.

The Guardsmen, who had been standing by, left the armory in convoy shortly after 1 a.m. Tuesday. Forty-four helmeted Guardsmen, carrying rifles with bayonets, formed an arrow-shaped formation and moved south on 24th St.

The street was virtually clear when they began.

The Omaha police were working 12-hour shifts and riding four to a cruiser, in case there should be any recurrence of the earlier violence.

Among those manning the emergency command post at a fire station at 22nd and Lake Sts.—only two blocks from the scene of a major outbreak in the early morning hours Sunday and the later call for the Guard Tuesday morning—were Mayor A. V. Sorensen and Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen, acting governor in the absence of Gov. Frank Morrison who is attending the National Governor's Conference in Los Angeles, Calif.

Negro Area

Most of the city's Negro population, estimated at about 30,000, live in the area.

The latest incident reportedly involved an estimated 250 to 300 persons, mostly Negro, and was connected with the snoving of an Omaha policeman. Officers at the scene called for help from the 36 Nebraska Safety Patrolmen who were standing by

It was decided to call for the Guard to "sweep the area."

Wayne, Norfolk Guards Report For Omaha Duty

By United Press International

Members of the National Guard units at Wayne and Norfolk were ordered Tuesday to report to their armories in full field gear.

The guardsmen are members of Company A and B, 1st Battalion, 134th Infantry unit.

They were advised they were called on for possible help in connection with the disturbances which have erupted in Omaha's near north side the past three nights.

It was also reported that guardsmen at Nebraska City had been asked to report for duty.

Democracy Is Better— Turncoat

San Francisco (AP) — Clarence Adams, a Korean War turncoat, returned to the U.S. mainland on Independence Day, remarking that "with all its faults, democracy is better than what they have" in Communist China.

Adams, his Chinese wife and their two children reached San Francisco on America's most patriotic day on the liner President Cleveland, their $1,800 fare paid by his mother, Gladys Peoples of Memphis, Tenn

"I never considered myself a Communist," he said after spending 13 years in mainland China. Adams, 37, declared he went there because prisoner of war camp officials convinced him "their way might have something to offer."

When asked the faults of China, he replied only: "Communism." He also said that the thing he had missed the most was the American barbecue.

He plans to remain in San Francisco a few days, then to continue to Memphis to visit his mother.

Lincoln, Omaha and Norfolk are not included.

Purge Continues In Red China

Tokyo (AP) — The Chinese Communist Party struck down a vice minister of culture and one other culprit in its expanding purge

The latest victims were vice minister Lin Mo-han, who also was deputy propaganda director of the party's central committee, and Shao Chuan-lin, writer and theorist.

Red Flag, theoretical journal of the party, charged that the two worked with Chou Yang, another deputy propoganda director who had been denounced earlier.

The official Lincoln temperature reached 100 degrees Tuesday at 12:01 p.m At 2 p.m. it was 103.

Only an hour later a heavy downpour of rain was reported in east Lincoln, the temperature had dropped to 79 degrees, the wind had shifted to the northwest gusting to 33 m.p.h.

The Weather Bureau predicted a 70% chance of thundershowers for the area for the remainder of the afternoon and evening.

The last time Lincoln Weather Bureau recorded a 100-degree temperature was Aug. 2, 1964, when the mercury reached 107 degrees. The record for July 5 is 110 degrees set in 1911.

Across the state, readings generally ranged from the upper 90s in the southeast to the upper 70s in the northwest. Broken Bow was cooled when a light thundershower temporarily dipped the mercury to 74 degrees

CORE Will Fight Fire With Fire

NAACP Theme Interracial

Los Angeles (UPI) — The 57th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) opened on an interracial rather than anti-white theme.

Some opposition to this concept was expected from so-called "Young Turks" who favor a more militant stance.

Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, set the theme of the five-day convention at a Monday news conference.

Wilkins said his organization did not go along with the concept of "black power" as expressed by some civil rights leaders such as Stokeley Carmichael of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) endorsed the "black power" concept at its convention which ended Monday in Baltimore.

Bad Choice

"The trouble with 'black power' is it implies 'anti-white' and we can't have anything to do with it," Wilkins said. We are loathe to talk about it. The kindest thing I can say about the term is it's a bad choice of words.

"We believe in the legitimate use of power. It ought never to be ethnic or racial. The NAACP, for example, has always been a believer in the unfettered ballot for the Negro. We have counseled him on the use of his ballot power for advancement of his race . . . but our whole situation is interracial not anti-racial."

Wilkins was asked about the "Young Turks" who want a more militant civil rights campaign by the NAACP and he said, "maybe the NAACP makes less noise than other groups but I think it's more militant. I welcome young people in the NAACP to needle the old folks into moving a little faster or get out."

Black Power Idea Adopted

Baltimore (UPI)—The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), pushed far beyond the issue of civil rights with resolutions calling for an end to the military draft and U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam. It coupled this with endorsement of "black power" as a means of achieving equality for Negroes.

As expected, the 250 delegates concluded CORE's four-day national convention with a unanimous vote to abandon its traditional commitment to non-violence in the civil rights movement.

Stressing the need for greater militancy, CORE vowed to fight fire with fire in its drive to achieve full racial equality by pursuing "black power," particularly in politics and economics.

An explanation of the new and more aggressive approach to civil rights was given by Floyd McKissick, national director of CORE.

"The black masses have not been elevated by the (war on poverty) program. As long as the white man has all the power and money, nothing will happen because we have nothing. The only way to achieve meaningful change is to take power."

Decisive Change

The decisive change in CORE's philosophy was expected to have a far-reaching effect on the civil rights struggle.

Up until now, most civil rights leaders have restricted themselves, for the most part, to more obvious areas of discrimination against Negroes, carefully avoiding foreign policy and other controversial subjects not directly related to the movement.

By following up its resolution to attain "black power" with strong, unequivocal stands against the draft and U.S. policies in Vietnam, CORE aligned itself with the more militant critics from the new left, who have been insisting right along that Negroes have been the chief U.S. victims of the war.

The draft resolution stated that the Selective Service System "places a heavy discriminatory burden" on minority groups and the poor.

Sukarno Title Is Removed

Jakarta (UPI) — The Indonesian congress has stripped President Sukarno of his powers and made onetime "president for life" a figurehead chief. Anti-Communist Gen. Suharto was made acting president and he immediately ringed Jakarta with troops.

The Peoples Provisional Consultative Congress (MPRS) banned some Sukarno writings as "a danger to the people's safety," and forbade the teachings of Marx, Lenin and all other Communist writers.

It ordered Sukarno and Suharto to form a new cabinet by Aug. 17 and called for general elections in two years.

Sukarno, now 65, and reported ailing, was stripped of his "president for life" title and left in office as president with all his actions subject to the congress that once was his rubber-stamp agency for bringing the country to the brink of the Communist bloc.

Suharto, a 46-year-old Javanese who smashed a Communist take-over plot nine months ago, was named "acting president" to take over at any time Sukarno was incapacitated or out of the country.

Sukarno was allowed to keep his title as "great leader of the revolution" which brought Indonesia independence and its present state of crisis during a 25-year span.

The congress recommended strongly that Indonesia rejoin the United Nations and the International Monetary Fund which Sukarno quit.

Queen Is Target Twice in Belfast

Belfast, Northern Ireland (UPI)—A man and a woman face charges in connection with the hurling of a cement block and a beer bottle at Queen Elizabeth as she rode in a bubble-top limousine through cheering crowds.

The beer bottle missed but the heavy cement block, weighing between 10 and 20 pounds, Monday dented the hood of the royal Rolls Royce only a few feet from where the Queen and her husband sat.

Neither the Queen nor Prince Philip appeared upset over the incidents which occurred within two minutes of each other in this city of bitter conflict between Irish Protestants and Catholics.

The limousine was moving slowly through Donegal Square outside the International Hotel when a full bottle of beer sailed over the heads of the crowd and shattered on the road.

Two minutes later, in Great Victoria Street, the cement brick, measuring about 12 inches by four inches, came hurtling down from the fourth floor of a building under construction. It banged onto the hood just behind the radiator and then fell to the road.

'Get Out of Vietnam' Cry Heard Around World

London (AP)—"Americans get out of Vietnam" was the familiar rallying cry as chanting crowds, many of them Communist-organized, staged Fourth of July protest demonstrations around the world.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk was the target of some 5,000 screaming Japanese leftists as he arrived in Japan for an economic conference. Police slipped him out of the Osaka airport by a back road.

In Paris, about 25 Americans began a march on the U.S. Embassy to deliver a protest petition, and French Communists moved in and swept the group into a fist-swinging clash with police. The crowd of 700 applauded when an American girl held aloft a burning American flag "as a symbol for what's happening in Vietnam — for the Americans to get out."

British police stopped an attempt to burn the American flag at the U.S. Embassy in London where U.S. Ambassador David Bruce was holding an Independence Day reception.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson yielded to demands from members of his Labor Party and scheduled debate in the House of Commons Thursday on the extended bombings of North Vietnam.

In Philadelphia, cradle of American independence, about 400 demonstrators marched with placards protesting the Vietnam war.

Hamburg — police used rubber clubs and hoses to repel about 500 domonstrators who tried to storm the U.S. consulate.

Munich—Police dispersed a mob which after a protest rally threw rotten eeggs and stones at the U.S. consulate.

Bonn — Rain doused a pacifist group's attempt to picket the U.S. Embassy where many high German officials attended the Independence Day reception.

Oslo — Some 500 Norwegian leftists demonstrated outside the U.S. Embassy, but U.S. Ambassador Margaret Joy Tibbets was away celebrating the day in the whaling port of Sandefjord.

Alaborg, Denmark — Premier Jens Otto Krag was cheered by leftists at the annual Danish-American Fourth of July program when he said his regime opposed "any action by which large population centers in North Vietnam would become the target of bombing."

Reykjavik, Iceland — About 50 Communists demonstrated outside the U.S. Embassy where Ambassador James Penfield was holding a reception.

Stockholm—Twenty youths fasting in protest against the U.S. bombings sat on a street adjoining the U.S. Embassy where 200 police stood guard.

Singapore — Authorities arrested 12 pro-Communists and broke up plans for a second day of demonstrations against the war.

Montreal — Police clashed with about 175 pickets denouncing U.S. "murders" in Vietnam.

With Political Peace, Ky Acting Like Politician

Chicago Daily News Special

Saigon—A political peace and quiet plus the promise of elections seem to have done wonders for Nguyen Cao Ky.

All of a sudden the prime minister is acting like a prime minister.

Since putting down the Buddhist-led street rebellion, Ky and his fellow generals in the military government have:

—Put into effect a stern economic reform plan that includes devaluation of currency and the breaking up of an exclusive little club of millionaire importers.

—Announced plans to move almost all Vietnamese and U.S. military installations and billets out of Saigon to make the city livable again for Vietnamese people.

—Made plans to have the Vietnamese military take over operation of the congested, corruption-ridden port of Saigon and to get the U.S. in making the port more efficient.

No one is ready to hang any medals on the Ky government for brilliance and efficiency.

But, as one American offical put it, "Before you can have good government or representative government, you've got to have government, period."

Economic Growth: An Issue

Economic development in Nebraska has been something like Mark Twain's observation of the weather — everybody talks about it but nobody does much about it

Now, Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen proposes to do something definite about building the economy of the state, if he is elected governor. Moreover, he has presented to the people of the state a detailed statement of just what he would do about this all-important matter.

* * *

Besides offering some constructive ideas on how to move Nebraska ahead economically, Sorensen's position paper on this subject places the campaign for the governorship on a lofty plane. He has promised a series of such statements on major issues throughout the campaign. His plan poses a solid challenge to his Republican opponent, Norbert Tiemann, to do likewise.

In his statement on economic development, Sorensen shows a keen understanding of the state's problems as well as its potentials. He identifies the role of government — local and federal along with state — in this endeavor.

The lieutenant governor's concrete suggestions for state assistance of economic growth are not terribly dramatic and, if implemented, they probably would not yield any startling results at once.

* * *

But they are realistic. They would not be costly. And they would provide a foundation for a sound economic development program.

* * *

Like others before him, Sorensen recommends creation of a State Department of Economic Development involving the upgrading of the existing Resources Division of the Department of Agriculture. Where other proposals have divided the proposed department according to economic pursuits (agriculture, industry, tourism), Sorensen breaks it up by functions (promotion, research, liaison with local and federal agencies).

Sorensen also proposes establishment of a board of economic advisors to the governor to help study, appraise and report economic trends of significance to Nebraska. This could be extremely valuable.

Beyond these specific points, Sorensen correctly notes that economic development is influenced by several other concerns of state government, chiefly education, taxation and recreation. He promises statements on these later.

* * *

Most valuable in the position paper perhaps is Sorensen's analysis of where Nebraska is economically and where it might expect to go.

* * *

Economic growth of the state is relatively slower than in the nation as a whole, he reports. This not only deprives Nebraskans of a better standard of living, but fails to provide adequate employment opportunities for their youngsters.

While recognizing that agriculture will remain the largest economic factor in the state, Sorensen calls for more diversity, especially through industries of a scientific and technological character that have a high growth potential.

* * *

Sorensen has come to grips, in a competent manner, with perhaps the most pressing problem of the state. His views and recommendations merit consideration by all Nebraskans.

Right to Know—Within Limits

It was a nice touch for President Johnson to sign the freedom of information bill on the Fourth of July. The bill is a step forward as the law limits the power of the executive branch to withhold information.

* * *

There is procedure for review by federal courts when information is withheld and then it is up to the government to prove its action was justified. The President said he "signed this measure with a deep sense of pride that the United States is an open society in which the people's right to know is cherished and guarded."

* * *

A lot of Washington newsmen would feel happier about the people's right to know if President Johnson would resume the formal press conferences. Under Mr. Johnson this type of press conference has all but disappeared.

He has replaced this with the small conference without advance notice which is usually covered by the regular White House correspondents. There is less risk of probing and unfriendly questions. Uneasiness that the President is telling the people only what he thinks they should know, or what he wants them to know, is the result.

President Johnson's reputation for behind-the-scenes manipulation of governmental affairs only increases the uneasiness.

Congress also carefully excluded the legislative branch from the bill. Congressmen are a rather gabby lot but can be tight-lipped about anything that threatens the reputation of any of the members.

* * *

The public and the news media should make full use of the new bill, but at the same time they should let Congress know they are not satisfied, nor will they be so long as Congress pulls down its shades.

Nebraska Flags in Vietnam

The Independence Day weekend was a fitting time for the Lincoln American Legion post to extend the offer of a Nebraska state flag to servicemen in Vietnam who ask for them.

* * *

The Lincoln post was responding to a request from Sen. Carl Curtis who noted a need for some organized effort to provide state flags for Nebraskans in Vietnam.

The people of this state are proud and deeply appreciative of the men from Nebraska who are fighting in that distant outpost.

* * *

They can be proud now that the emblem of their state will fly from many a Vietnamese encampment.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND'S Opinion

Big Brother's Long Arm

Los Angeles—The nation's governors are filled with dismay—tinged with hope—over President Johnson's Big Brother plans to inject federal power further into the states.

I doubt if there is a single one of the Democratic or Republican state executives, gathered here for the 1966 Governors' Conference, who doesn't feel jittery about what is in prospect—namely, such a massive federal penetration in state and local matters leaving the governors little more than proconsuls for Washington.

Drummond

The truth is that there is little the governors can do to resist what President Johnson amiably calls "creative federalism" which seems to create ever more federalism and ever less state-ism.

* *

Record State Budgets

There are good reasons why resistance is difficult, almost non-existent.

The states have an oversupply of problems—acute and unsolved problems caused by mounting population, increased school and college enrollment, increased traffic, increased crime. If you study the legislative recommendations of all 50 governors, you find that nearly every one of them is simultaneously trying to cope with all of these problems and others.

* *

The Council of State Governors reports that the effect of all this is the "expansion of state services, to be financed by record budgets," in nearly every state.

* *

The states have an undersupply of money. Many are at the very outer limits of their ability to increase revenue and have had to resort to state income and sales taxes.

The consequence of too many problems and too little revenue is that the states need federal money and are almost always eager to take it. Result: more federal dollars and more federal control.

But the governors here are hopeful that this inevitable partnership with the federal government can be kept from undermining the independence of the states by steps like these:

1. Share some federal revenue with the states without coercive strings, a proposal at one time supported by President Johnson.

2. Give a full opportunity for the governors to participate in formulating federal grant-in-aid programs to be carried out by the states.

3. Start a federal-state training program in which state officials would serve as internes in Washington and federal officials would serve at the state level.

* *

4. Give coherent direction to the 170 federal-state aid programs, now totalling $10 billion a year and administered by 21 federal agencies, by creating a National Inter-Government Affairs Council under the President.

* *

This later proposal could be one of the most valuable of all. It springs from Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D.-Me., himself a former governor. It would provide a "working secretariat" of experts, independent of the federal departments, and a direct liaison with state and local governments.

These words from Sen. Muskie fall on very welcome ears here in Los Angeles: "We are headed for trouble if we don't pull the federal establishment together and develop a more positive attitude of helping state and local governments" on a cooperative basis.

The attitude of the governors is: why not now."

Fly the Flag

Lincoln — What's happened to Old Glory? Not too many years ago every family that bought bread owned a flag. They could hardly wait for our special days to give them an airing.

Your most precious flag should have been hung on the 4th of July. Some of our boys are home on furlough. They should be shown a little respect.

NAVY MOTHER

A Contrast

Hastings — I saw the television appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee of that illustrious undersecretary of state, George W. Ball.

We Americans, irrespective of party affiliations, should be proud and thankful to have a man of his intellectual capacity in our State Department. What a contrast between his incise mind and forthright replies and the circuitous thinking and verbosity of the committee chairman.

Men of the caliber of Sens. Fulbright and Morse, the "doves," should be caged and silenced. How much help and comfort are they giving our avowed enemies of the Communist world?

Since the sad debacle of Teheran and Yalta following World War II all of our efforts in foreign policy have been devoted to containment of communism. They are still determined to conquer our world.

The Communists have been endeavoring ever since the Geneva conference to take control of South Vietnam. Over a million Vietnamese migrated from North Vietnam to escape the tyranny of communism.

South Vietnam is undergoing a difficult struggle also from within. Thank God Premier Ky has not fallen victim to the two million militant Buddhists that toppled Premier Diem.

Ky by strong measures has subdued the militant Buddhists led by that "Machiavelli in monk's clothing," who having failed to influence the government with a few more human torches, is now under guard in a self-imposed death by starvation. May he rest in peace is my prayer.

We should be grateful for men of the caliber of Sens. Lausche, Symington, Sparkman, etc. who so ably defended President Johnson in the hearings.

As a veteran of World War I and one who had four sons serve our country during World War II and the Korean War, I am proud of my government and its efforts to contain communism in any part of the world.

Beauty Defended

Lincoln — In reply to "Real Beauty" (Public Mind, July 2):

While I agree with "A Guy" to some extent about the current fashions for women, something in the sweeping statement of calling all women who wear brief clothing "inferior and insecure" ruffles my feminine feathers.

It may come as a shock to "Guy," but Jackie Kennedy does not go about garbed in ski clothes in the heat of the summer. In fact, she has even been known to wear a bathing suit upon the proper occasion — swimming.

If we females are such an unsightly lot in our bathing suits (which since 1890 have exposed knees), our tennis dresses, and evenings gowns, then may I venture the opinion "Guy" might do with a little counseling himself?

Morrison Record

Lincoln — It is easy to understand why, as reported (Lincoln Journal, June 29) Gov. Frank Morrison "sought to shift the immediate focus of his bitter campaign against Sen. Carl T. Curtis away from himself to that of Republican Curtis' record."

Morrison's own record of indecisive, bumbling administration of the state's affairs is self-indicting.

His studied avoidance of coming to grips with the tax problem, the preferential purchasing practices, the mess in our state mental hospitals, his failure to provide leadership in meeting the University's needs evidence his ineptitude.

His ribbon-cutting, parades, faithful attendance at all chicken suppers, his European junkets and attacks on the "irresponsible press" will not fool the voters of Nebraska.

They prefer the candor, integrity and experienced statesmanship of Carl T. Curtis — a man on whom they know they can rely.

MRS. IMOGENE P. BRUCE

Trial Balloon?

Omaha—In view of the startling revelations by a congressional committee, of which Sen. Curtis was a most deligent member, in the matter of exposure of Bobby Baker and his operation in the Quorum Club on behalf of his sponsor and close associate, it would seem that associate would now hardly dare bring that association into renewed publicity in his effort to defeat Sen. Curtis for re-election!

Or was the recent visit of Lady Bird to Omaha just a trial balloon?

MORE or LESS PERSONAL

Had it not been for a chance meeting aboard an airliner, we may never have known there is such a thing as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

* * *

There not only is such an organization, but it had its first national convention in Chicago a few days ago. The accidental airline meeting was with one of the principal speakers at the affair—a university admissions official, of all people.

Athletic Advice

On reflection, it's probably a pretty good thing for collegiate athletic directors to hear from admissions officials at some time other than when eligibility records come out or athletic scholarships are passed around.

This particular speaker happened to be a former Nebraskan—Dr. Roland B. Thompson, native of Grand Island and once a student at Hastings College. He now handles admissions, with the title of executive dean, at Ohio State, one of the most populous universities in the country as well as one of the most enthusiastic about athletics.

* * *

What Dr. Thompson had to say to the athletic directors would seem to be of interest to the public generally, especially in a sports-nutty state like Nebraska.

* * *

Thompson's central point was that athletics are not only an integral part of our educational program today, but they also produce many of the young men who move into positions of responsibility in business and government. In many instances, the heroes of the gridiron or the basketball court gravitate to such positions more easily than their bookworm classmates.

Thus the obligation to develop character and integrity in their young charges is even more pressing on athletic directors and coaches than on professors of many academic subjects. Said Dr. Thompson to the convention:

"We need look no farther than our own local, city and state government to see that those to whom we now turn for leadership were, but a short time ago, being coached by some of you here today. What if your coaching by precept and example had not been the best you could give?

* * *

"On the larger scale, in the light of international suspicion, national uncertainty, and unsolved problems within each state, we dare not do less than our best to train young men to assume these responsibilities. At the level of our national government we have had called to our attention too often the lack of moral integrity on the part of those who make decisions affecting all of us."

* * *

Then Thompson dropped the clincher that can be heeded by every adult, including parents, who has anything to do with the upbringing of youngsters:

"Placing a man in a position of responsibility will not give him character—it will only test the character he has; it is too late to develop it."

What rules of conduct would this admissions director pass along to athletic directors to relay to their young gladiators? "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you"—the Golden Rule.

* * *

It sounds as though the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is off to a good start.

A WORLD OF HUMOR — By ART BUCHWALD

Peace Corps Backlash

Washington—Thailand has just announced that she will send Peace Corps volunteers to the United States as a reciprocal gesture for American Peace Corps volunteers dispatched to Thailand. The announcement said that several projects, including the teaching of the Thai language to Americans, would be worked out.

Buchwald

No one in his wildest dreams ever thought that there would be this kind of backlash to the Peace Corps. While the U.S. has been very eager to send Peace Corps volunteers abroad, we're not too certain it's such a great idea to have other countries send Peace Corps volunteers to the United States.

I can just see the first Thai Peace Corps volunteer, after spending two years in the United States, returning to Thailand and being interviewed by a newscaster on Bangkok television.

* * *

Very Primitive

"We have in our studio Mr. Yok Bin Lin, who has just returned after serving two years in the United States as a Peace Corps volunteer. Mr. Lin, how was it over there?"

* * *

"I had a wonderful time and I think I taught them a lot. The village where I worked in New Jersey was called Hoboken. By our standards it was very primitive, but the people were simple and friendly and willing to learn."

* * *

"Was it dangerous, Mr. Lin?"

"Well, you couldn't go out at night, but in the daytime it was perfectly safe to wander in most areas."

"Where did you live?"

"As you know, Thai Peace Corps volunteers are trained to live with the natives, so I moved into an urban housing development. It was hard at first, because the plumbing kept me awake at night, but after a while I got used to it."

"Did you eat the native food?"

"I tried to, but it wasn't easy. The Hoboken people refuse to raise any food themselves and they must buy it at supermarkets frozen and wrapped in cellophane."

"You must be joking?"

* * *

"No, I'm not. One of my first projects was to try to teach the natives how to grow their own vegetables so they wouldn't have to spend money, but they were too set in their ways."

* * *

"What did you find was the Americans' biggest problem?"

"They're full of fears. It's very hard to work with the people because, in the world they live in, they've lived with fear for so long."

* * *

Birth Control

"What do you think the origin of the fear is?"

"It starts with their young, who are told at a very early age that they have bad breath, that they perspire too much, that they will probably get cavities, that they are susceptible to headaches, neuralgia, and stomach acids. By the time the young grow up, they're frightened of everything."

"What about the family structure?"

* * *

"There is not too much to speak of. The children go off when they're quite young and have a great hostility towards their elders. The husbands and wives don't get along too well either, so there is quite a bit of friction right inside the family."

* * *

"Looking back over the two years, Mr. Lin, what do you consider was the greatest contribution you made?"

"I got everyone in Hoboken to practice birth control."

North Side Stays Quiet In Omaha

to disperse persons who had no reason to be there.

No violence was reported.

Gov. Morrison, who has been keeping in close touch with the situation through aides, commented on the situation:

"We have a very able mayor in Omaha who is taking charge of the situation. Omaha's Near North Side isn't the best place to live.

"I hope this situation shocks the consciences of the people to the point where they realize something must be done about the causes of these incidents."

When a reporter asked Mayor Sorensen earlier if the situation was primarily a problem of racial relations, the mayor said flatly it was not.

Negro leaders issued appeals to the Negro population to end the disturbance and looting of stores.

Danner Pleads

Among them was State Sen. Edward Danner, the only Negro member of the Nebraska Legislature, who called upon the Negro population "to cease and refrain from the senseless destruction of property and the looting of business establishments and the harassment of police officials in performance of their sworn duties."

He also called on parents to exercise supervision of minors and forbid them to engage in violence and lawlessness.

Dr. J. Andrew Thompson, secretary of the Baptist Ministerial Alliance, a group of Negro ministers, said:

"Such acts only lead to destroying of your future and the future of the community. We therefore challenge the youth of our community to transform their destructive acts of enthusiasm into constructive behavior using the energy for the good of the whole community."

Stores Ransacked

The president of Citizens Coordinating Committee for Civil Liberties, the Rev. G. A. Woods, told newsmen he could not say what triggered the outbreaks.

But he said there has been considerable frustration on the part of Negroes. The Police - Community Relations Council recently formed has heard complaints, he said, "but they just explain them away."

"It's like butting heads against a stone wall to get things done," he added.

He said his group has consistently pleaded for more jobs for Negroes, an end of the de facto segregation and a larger voice in policy-making on projects which affect Negroes.

Early Sunday about 150 to 200 persons were involved in disturbances precipitated by what Chief of Police C. Harold Ostler called young rowdies, who smashed bottles, threw rocks at police cars, exploded illegal fireworks and ransacked four stores. Chief Ostler declared this outbreak had no racial significance.

Omaha Corps Adds Paxton to Housing Ranks

Omaha (UPI)—The Paxton Hotel will become part of Omaha's Women's Job Corps Centers.

Center Director Robert Anderson said the Burroughs Corporation has received a 10-month contract of $2,110,977 to house and train 465 enrollees in the Paxton.

The hotel is being leased from the Gal-Tex Corporation of Galveston, Tex., for a gross lease price of $157,500 a year for three years.

The center will have a capacity of 800 girls. The Regis Hotel, which opened a year ago, has a capacity of 335.

Anderson said both the Paxton and $4,247,000 Regis contracts will expire next May 10, and will be renegotiated together.

Anderson said the expanded center also plans to provide training for about 100 Omaha girls. They will be at the center during the day but will return home at night. Omaha is a pilot center for this type of operation.

Residency Program Resumed

Dr. Boykin said another residency applicant is being considered.

Other Programs

Lincoln's only other hospitals with resident programs are Orthopedic, where Dr. Albert Gasis of Denver reported for children's services, and St. Elizabeth where two interns, Drs. Cecil T. Bromfield and Dwight L. Snyder, have remained for a one-year general surgery training.

Lincoln's new medical education arrivals also include 16 interns, eight at Bryan Memorial, and four each at St. Elizabeth and Lincoln General.

Shriners Parade 10,000 Strong

San Francisco (AP) — Some 10,000 men parade up Market Street this Independence Day in the vanguard of the Shriners' 86th Imperial Council convention.

Nearly 100,000 members of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and their families are expected in this city of 750,000 for the convention which opens officially Tuesday. In the six-hour parade are 71 marching units, a troop of horses and a 7,000 pound elephant as well as the fez-topped Shriners.

The Shrine, composed of Masons who have completed their Scottish or York Rites, operate a number of children's hospitals.

Argentinians Visit State

Seward — Southeastern Nebraska farms and feedlots were being visited Tuesday by 33 Argentina cattle feeders from the province of Buenos Aires who are spending four days in the area to learn more about beef production. Tuesday and Wednesday the group was being entertained by the Soil Conservation Service and trips will include visits to the Salt Valley Watershed project, conservation farms, feedlots and a trip to the national award winning Brownell watershed near Syracuse.

This is one of five Argentina agricultural groups that will visit Nebraska at the expense of the Argentina agriculture producers study group during 1966 to learn more about Nebraska agriculture and how its methods might be applied to Argentina agriculture.

The group is utilizing the Nebraska Center and the facilities of the University of Nebraska as a central point for the Nebraska visits.

'Nominal' Hike Seen

For Bank Loan Rates

By Associated Press

State Banking Director Byron Dunn said that Nebraska banks will impose only "nominal" interest rate increases for loans in the near future, despite a national trend toward major loan rate hikes.

"Nebraska bank rates have remained relatively stable in the past, and we're not subject to the national fluctuations," he said.

Nationally, interest rates on bank loans have jumped because "the big banks have over-loaned and have been caught in a bind, particularly on commercial loans," Dunn said.

"As a whole, Nebraska banks are not too tight with loans because they deal primarily with farm loans, not commercial loans, and many of them do not aggressively seek time money business."

He said major banks in Omaha and Lincoln are affected somewhat by the national rate changes because they have a larger percentage of business loans than do other Nebraska banks.

He said the nation's large banks are attempting to tighten credit by setting loan interest rates at levels designed to discourage some potential borrowers.

Dunn said the high rate method is used because banks, for competitive reasons, will not voluntarily ration loans.

NU Begins Building

Hospital Add Project First

University of Nebraska College of Medicine's multi-million dollar building program starts this week with a $238,440 remodeling job.

The big contract for the hospital addition and the new Basic Science building is expected to be awarded late this fall or early winter.

The $238,440 project, awarded to Sides Construction Co. of Omaha, will double the 25-bed capacity of the pediatrics department.

The new 50-bed department will require remodeling of level 5 and part of level 6 of Unit II, a 1927 building.

Dr. Gordon Gibbs is chairman of the University's pediatrics department. Only a minor part of pediatrics teaching is done in the privately-owned Children's Hospital, which is located on medical campus land.

LAFB Plan On Housing Is Coming

Decision Set Next Week

Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., had optimistic news Tuesday for both the Lincoln Job Corps and the Lincoln Housing Authority:

"I understand a decision on the method by which the Lincoln Air Force Base housing will be released will be made here next week by General Services Administration, the Defense Dept. and the Air Force."

After that, Callan continued, the proposal and details will have to be negotiated with the Lincoln Housing Authority, which wants to lease the 1,000 units, with option to buy.

One of the Lincoln Job Corps planners' big problems currently, according to Director J O. Grantham, is the availability of base houses to personnel who should be readily available once the Center opens in early September.

It is estimated that the Job Corps will need about 200 of the 1,000 units.

City Living

The 325 other personnel, making up the 525 peak expected in mid-1967, will be encouraged to live in the city, according to Mrs. Virginia Gilbert.

The community and public relations director said "Mr. Grantham will not encourage workers to ask for base housing unless they need to be on hand. We want our employes to live in and be a part of the community."

Mrs. Gilbert also listed these status points in the move toward a September opening when the first group of 50 Job Corps trainees will arrive:

—130 persons are now employed at the center. Of 200 job offers made thus far, 161 have accepted.

—300 employes should be on hand Aug. 1 to get ready for the initial contingent of 50 youths in September. The center will have 400 youths by October, served by 131 faculty members and 200 administrators.

—The 525 personnel peak may be reached by mid-1967 when the center enrolment should be at its high mark of 1,100 Corpsmen.

—Work has started on dormitory and classroom buildings. A total $600,000 has been budgeted for center building rehabilitation.

—An interested doctor, dentist, clinical psychologist and head nurse for the Center medical staff are to be interviewed this week. It will take either a full-time physician or two part-time doctors to staff the center's health program in the former air base hospital.

—New employes reporting include Ellis Rall, former Lincoln Journal, World Herald and United Press reporter, as news media specialist in the Center's community and public relations department. His yearly salary is $9,000. Department director, Mrs. Gilbert receives $14,000 annually.

Director Says State Projects Won't Be Hurt

By Associated Press

State technical assistance agency director RON Jensen said he does not think a nationally-imposed limit on expansion of the anti-poverty community action program will hurt Nebraska projects.

Jensen reported the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity said it would not approve any new community action program development grants during the months of June, July and August.

He said Nebraska has no grant applications pending but new projects should be ready for federal funding within six months, when the limitation on grant approvals should be lifted.

William Shovell of Kansas City, Mo., regional manager of the community action program, said the grant limitation was imposed because the bureau of the budget wanted to hold down the amount of "unfunded liability" in the anti-poverty effort until Congress decides at what level it wishes to continue the war on poverty.

Jensen noted 10 community action councils covering 36 counties now are operating in Nebraska to coordinate local anti-poverty efforts.

Nebraska was one of seven states which did not use its full allotment of federal funds under the community action program during the fiscal year which ended Thursday. The state used $1.3 million of the $2.2 million allotment.

Combining Brings Stubble Reflection, Hot Weather

By MIKE BAXTER

When thermometer mercury rises to the evaporation point this summer, don't blame the weatherman — blame the harvest crews.

But don't blame them much.

Across the broad wheat lands of Nebraska, it really is cooler before the harvest, weathermen, climatologists, nurserymen and farmers agree.

How much harvesting causes the heat to increase, however, they don't know—but they agree that it's slight.

Before the annual cutting, the tall stands of wheat absorb some of the heat, notes Richard Myers of Lincoln, state climatologist.

"Especially where the country is preponderant with wheat," he adds, "there is a small rise in the temperature after the harvest is over."

Stubble Reflection

Bad guy in the plot is the short bright wheat stubble reflecting the heat instead of absorbing it.

But there is no way to actually measure this," Myers continues.

Gordon Lippert, Lincoln Weather Bureau meterologist, explains why: "The air moves so fast that it pretty well equalizes the temperature difference" between bare and wheat-covered fields.

"It's true that green, growing plants tend to absorb sunlight," he concurs, "and hold the temperatures down.

"It's pretty common knowledge to pilots that when they're flying over green fields, forested areas or water that they have to watch out for downdrafts.

"And when they're flying over bare fields or pavement on a Sunday afternoon they have to be careful of turbulent updrafts.

Hot Air Rise

"Where a study of runway temperatures out on the concrete has been made, it was found that there is very little difference between this temperature and the temperature over green grass.

"It soon warms up on the runways and the warm air rises, being replaced by cooler surrounding air."

July opening of the wheat harvest, he adds, would bring these temperature variations only if it "covers a tremendous area.

"Where they've drained swamps, cut down trees and put in paving, they've noticed warmer summertime temperatures, but they've made no measurements."

The effect is also increased "on days of bright sunshine and light winds," climatologist Myers says. "If the winds are blowing, they mix the heat to greater depths."

Less scientific but equally strong is the conviction of Don Christenson, farm labor manager for the State Labor Dept., that harvesting affects temperatures.

Weed Cushion

"When it's moist and there's a lot of weeds" among the wheat, "I think it tends to result in cooler summers" like this year's, Christenson comments.

"In drier years, with no weeds, it gets unbearably hot. With dry stubble and a good south wind, you get just seared."

A veteran Lincoln nurseryman, W. C. Bullock, theorized that vegetation helps break up ultra-violet rays.

And with growing plants nearby, "We at least always think it's cooler," he says, pointing out the psychology of the phenomenon.

"There's a relaxing atmosphere, a little assurance" from foliage, he adds.

All this, Myers notes, is linked to microclimatology—the study of climate in a small area.

Heat Island

With light wind circulation, Myers explains, a heat island can be formed—a local area where the heat added from buildings and car combustions raises the temperature "a little more."

This is noticeable is both summer and winter, he said, but "mainly in winter because of the heated houses."

"With clear skies at night, it tends to get colder in a microclimate area," Myers adds, pointing out the backside of the warmer-in-daytime characteristic.

Can citizens fight this microclimatic effect of the wheat harvest?

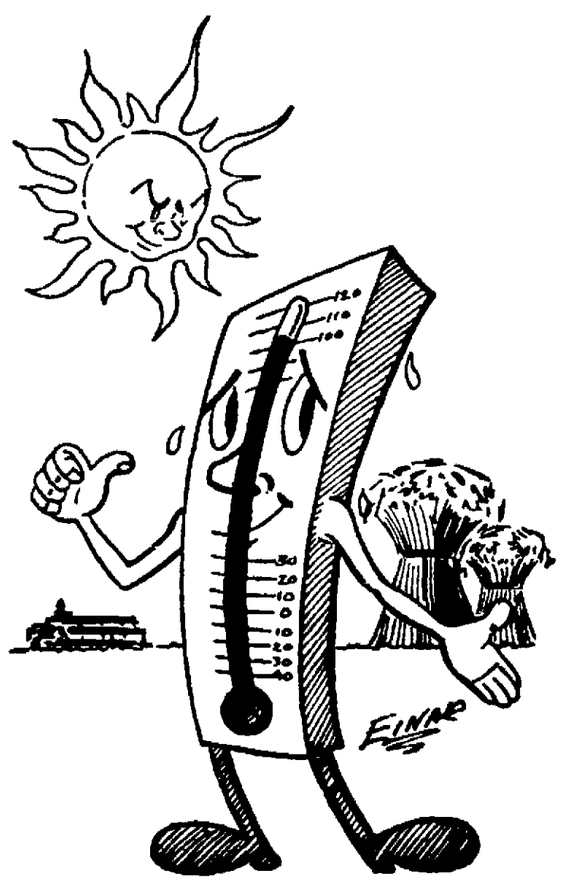

Yes, all agree: Before next year's harvest, they can plant a shade tree in the front lawn.

Equalization Board Holds Brief Session

The State Board of Equalization met briefly Monday for its first official 1966 session.

The meeting was held only to meet statutory requirements. No action was taken, State Tax Commissioner George Dworak said.

Also attending were Secretary of State Frank Marsh and Auditor Ray Johnson.

39 Floats Featured In David City Parade

David City—A crowd estimated between 2,500 and 3,000 viewed the second annual Fourth of July parade here sponsored by the David City Jaycees.

The Monday parade consisted of 39 floats ranging from wildlife, conservation and farming to saddle clubs and military exhibits.

The parade was led by David City Mayor Everett McCracken and the city council, followed by Lt. Gov. Phil Sorensen, and the Nebraska state Jobs Daughters queen, Jean Eberly, of David City.

The Columbus Shriners motorscooter troupe, the David City High School band, York's drum and bugle corps and the Contemporaries, an all Negro band from Omaha, also participated in the parade.

The Independence Day festivities began Saturday with carnivals and concessions, according to Jaycee President Jerry Menke.

Saturday's festivities were highlighted by a "car smash." An old Cadillac that had been used by the Jaycees had finally worn itself out after years of "faithful service" according to Menke.

The Jaycees charged a dime per customer to take a whack at the car with a sledge hammer . . . and "they're still pounding," Menke said Monday.

A water fight between the David City and Brainard fire depts. Sunday ended in a victory for Brainard, while David City defeated York in an inter-city softball game.

The celebrations ended Monday evening with a fireworks demonstration, square and teen dances.

Balloonist Is Still Stymied At Broadwater

Broadwater (AP) — Balloonist Tracy Barnes tried unsuccessfully Tuesday to get airborne and continue his trip across the country.

An associate said Barnes tried first at 1 a.m. then again at 5 and 6 a.m. Each time surface winds were too strong. The Chester, S.C., flier planned to keep trying.

Barnes' balloon was damaged on landing June 26. He repaired it and has been waiting since for an opportunity to take off.

He left Coronado, Calif., April 9 on the projected flight across the U.S.

Doctors quit smoking

CHICAGO—According to a recent survey, 52% of American doctors do not smoke. Many quit recently due, according to the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, to the conclusive evidence linking cigarettes and lung cancer.

Many doctors gave up smoking without straining their will power thanks to a new tablet which helps to progressively eliminate the need for nicotine and, as a result, the desire to smoke. Less than 2% of the 150,000 people who tried this tablet reported they still smoke!.

Smokers interested in receiving information (free) about this new tablet are invited to contact directly the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, Dept. 75-X-1, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, New York.

Valuations Re-Hearing Is Wanted

Lancaster County Atty. Paul Douglas said he will file for a re-hearing to the Nebraska Supreme Court of the decision upholding increases in urban and rural real estate valuations set by the state board of equalization last summer.

Douglas said the county has 20 days, or until July 21, to file for a re-hearing and he informed the county board Tuesday he intends to file within the deadline.

In one of eight cases filed by counties appealing 1965 state board action increasing valuations, the court Friday on a 5-2 vote affirmed a 28% hike in urban and 15% hike in rural Lancaster County valuations.

The increases by the state board hiked 1965 valuations by about $142 million.

The county board took independent action in May and rolled back the increases as they would apply to 1966 taxes. The increases were not included in the county tax abstract sent to the state board Friday.

Scottsbluff (AP)—A Scottsbluff man drowned in Lake Minatare about eight miles northeast of Scottsbluff.

The victim was identified as LaRae Rittenhouse, 26, who is survived by his wife and one child.

A companion, James Gable, 23, Gering, managed to reach shore.

Witnesses said the men were floating on an inflated innertube when it apparently flipped over about 75 feet from shore.

Foot Care Fund Given

Provides for Nurse Training

Nebraska is the first state to apply for and receive a U.S. Public Health grant of $5,000 to train the nursing profession on podogeriatrics or foot care for the aged.

John Carson, director of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Aging, who drafted the grant application, said foot health is one of the aged's biggest problems.

The grant, announced by Carson, will go to the University of Nebraska Department of Continuing Education to sponsor a three-day podogeriatrics conference beginning Oct. 3 for registered and licensed practical nurses who work in facilities for the aged.

Co-sponsors of the course will include the State Advisory Committee on Aging, the State Health Dept., the Nebraska Podiatry Assn., and the Nebraska Nursing Home Assn.

Its aims, according to Carson, will be to discuss the nature, scope and extent of foot problems, to help the nursing staff member recognize them before they become acute and to train the nurse to work toward better foot health for the aged.

He said NU Extension Service will provide material laetr this summer to interested nursing personnel, who will be paid stipends for the October conference participation from the $5,000 grant.

Curtis: Servicemen Get 'Discrimination'

Washington (AP) — Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.), contended Tuesday the federal government is less generous with its servicemen than with persons on relief.

In a statement criticizing poverty programs, Curtis called the "disparity in treatment totally unjustified discrimination."

Those in military service, he said, are expected to give their lives for their country and are on call 24 hours a day.

He added that if a member of the armed forces travels on leave, even on emergency leave, he pays his own transportation expenses if he isn't fortunate enough to obtain a ride on a government plane.

On the other hand, he continued, Job Corps enrollees are transported at taxpayers' expense to their homes for some holidays and considerable distances on frequent trips for social and pleasure purposes.

A Job Corps enrollee's pay he said, is as much as that of an Army private who can be sent to Vietnam.

"It is evident that the poverty program is being run by incompetent planners and administrators," he said.

Tempting Salad For Main Dish

By POLLY PARSONS

Whether it's luncheon or supper, an appetizing salad served as a main dish can help everyone forget the soaring temperatures.

Served with rolls or breads, these salads are really a summertime treat.

Apple-Chicken Salad
2 cups diced, unpared red apples.
2 cups diced cooked or canned chicken.
1 cup drained canned pineapple tidbits.
1 cup halved, seeded tokay grapes.
Mayonnaise
Bibb lettuce.

Combine apples, chicken, pineapple, and grapes. Add enough mayonnaise to hold ingredients together. Serve on leaves of Bibb lettuce. Makes 6 servings.

Danish Shrimp Cocktail
1 pound shrimp, cooked, peeled, deveined.
½ cucumber, peeled, sliced thin.
2 ounces blue cheese (½ cup, crumbled)
½ cup mayonnaise.
1 teaspoon grated horseradish, drained.
2 tablespoons milk.
¼ teaspoon pepper
Lemon slice
Parsley sprig

Reserve 6 shrimp for garnish; cut rest into bite-sized pieces. Add cucumber. Pile into lettuce-lined dishes. Blend blue cheese, mayonnaise, horseradish, milk, and pepper. Spoon dressing over shrimp. Garnish with whole shrimp, lemon slice, parsley. Serve chilled. Makes 4 to 6 appetizer servings, 2 to 3 main dish servings.

Oriental Luncheon Salad
1 ½-pound package sliced sausage or bologna
1 13½-ounce can pineapple chunks
½ cup salad dressing
2 tablespoons finely chopped preserved ginger (optional)
1 tablespoon preserved ginger syrup
½ teaspoon salt
3 cups seasoned cooked rice, chilled
1½ cups sliced celery
1 8-ounce can water chestnuts, drained and sliced
1 cup diced Cheddar cheese
Lettuce
1-3 cup toasted slivered almonds

Cut sliced cold cuts into small wedges. Drain pineapple; save 1-3 cup syrup. Combine pineapple syrup, salad dressing, ginger, ginger syrup, and salt; mix. Combine sausage wedges, pineapple, rice, celery, water chestnuts, and cheese. Add salad dressing mixture. Mix carefully and chill. To serve, spoon salad into lettuce-lined salad bowl. Top with almonds. Yield: About 8 cups, 6 to 8 servings.

Porter: Tally 'Weekend Specials' For True Measure of Food Cost

By SYLVIA PORTER

There is one major recommendation in the just-issued report of the National Commission on Food Marketing —and only one — which is "heartily welcomed" by the entire food industry. It is that the consumer Price Index, which measures changes in the U. S. cost of living, should include the full impact of "specials" as well as regular prices in tallying the cost of food to the consumer.

Porter

For if this were done, it would surely "shrink" the dollar rise in the cost of food at home by a perceptible percentage.

Today, the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) prices about 90 items of food in 56 cities each month—during a mid-week, when regular prices predominate. But you, the consumer, spend a full 77% of your food dollars on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the big days for specials.

An estimated 60-70% of the meat we buy on weekends, the key shopping period for meats, is at special prices.

Thus, argues a representative of the National Association of Food Chains in Washington, "the Consumer Price Index measures prices and price trends but it does not accurately measure your actual food purchases." This is a significant distinction.

Officially, the cost of food at home has risen close to 6% in the past 12 months, roughly double the overall rise in prices. But there is a difference between percentages and dollars and the fact is that millions of us are building whole menus around specials, are deliberately bypassing foods at higher regular prices.

What would be the effect on official food costs if the BLS shoppers concentrated on specials the way you do? Here is a comparison of special v regular prices in a single New York City Grand Union supermarket in a single week late last month:

| Item | Reg. price | Sales price | Savings |
|---|---|---|---|
| Coffee, 1 lb. | $ .85 | .79 | .06 |
| Sirloin steak, 1 lb. | 1 05 | .83 | .22 |
| Bottom round roast, 1 lb. | 1.25 | .89 | .36 |
| Chicken, 1 lb. | .49 | .45 | .04 |
| Tomatoes, 1 lb. | .39 | .29 | .10 |
| Cantaloupe, large size | .34 | .30 | .04 |
| Lemons, bag of 10 | .59 | .49 | .10 |
| Canned green beans, 1 lb. | .18 | .15 | .03 |
| Applesauce, 35 oz. can | .39 | 34 | 05 |
| Frozen peas & carrots, 10 oz. | .30 | 25 | .05 |
| Turkey dinner, frozen | .79 | .69 | .10 |
| American cheese, 8 oz | .39 | .34 | .05 |
| Total | $7.01 | $5.81 | $1.20 |

In this list alone, the savings amount to 17%, and the list is varied enough to suggest substantial savings cutting across the whole menu if meals are planned around specials.

The BLS is already conducting a study for the Department of Agriculture comparing regular and special food prices in various parts of the nation.

Of course our overall food costs have been in a climbing trend. The rise over a year ago has been particularly severe in meats which take 25c out of every food dollar.

But when the impact of specials can be measured, the real dollar price rise in the real-life family's food market basket will turn out less steep than anyone has believed.

Elan Makes 1967 Plans

Mrs Loretta Hamilton of Chicago and Bernie Bean of Seattle were among members of the "Clan MacBean" descendants of Scotsman John Bean who was deported from England to Exeter N H , in 1651—in Lincoln to make plans for the family's 1967 reunion. Between 500 and 1,000 Bean descendants are expected from Scotland, Canada and all 50 states for next summer's gathering, which Bernie Bean termed "more a convention than a reunion." Lincoln will be the site, Bean explained, because of its central U.S. location and because of Nebraska's centennial.

A Beauty Hint

Give your skin a delightful bloom to last through the driest and hottest of summers. Damp a cloth in the cold water from your refrigerator and smooth it over your face and neck, or better still, cool and use your bottle of lemon Jelvyn instead. Feel the skin respond to the refreshing Jelvyn toning action. Now, to hold the bloom, smooth on your oil of Olay and use it always under your make-up to protect against the weather and to give the skin that young dewy look.

. . . Margaret Merril.

Urge Husband Get Help Before Chasm Is Too Wide

Dear Ann Landers: Our children are three and four years old. They are bright and active and, I believe, quite well-behaved for their ages

My husband wants me to have dinner with him in the dining room every evening, just the two of us. The children, he says, should be fed in the kitchen before he gets home. According to him, a man who works hard all day is entitled to a quiet, relaxing dinner. He says the children are noisy and messy and that they give him indigestion Picket Fence

Dear Picket: A father who is unable to tolerate the sight and sound of his children at mealtime is an emotional basket case. I feel terribly sorry for him.

Feed the children in the dining room before their father comes home. Sit with them so they will not feel completely abandoned during meal time. Urge your husband to see a psychiatrist before he creates such a huge gulf between himself and his children that it can never be bridged.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: I have read your column for years but this is the first time I have become angry enough to write. My anger is not directed at you, but at some of the so-called intellectual elite of our country — the college crowd who, at the ripe old age of 20, think they know all the answers.

I was especially teed off by the little chick who wrote, "The girl who gives her body gives nothing of significance because it is the gift of the MIND that counts." And I liked your answer, advising her not to give her mind away too often because she didn't have much to spare.

Doesn't the nitwit realize that the mind and the body are one? The body is not capable of registering a feeling, or an idea. Every physical impulse must reach us through the mind. The brain decides what we do about our feelings — whether to scream when we turn an ankle, cry when we get slapped, or give in to a smooth talker who wants to drag every girl to bed for the same reason he wants to knock down all the pins in the bowling alley.

The college girl who scoffed at virginity as the most over-rated virtue since Queen Victoria should be told that the girl who waits until marriage proves that she had enough self-control to wait — and that's worth something these days.

Withered Old Lady of 27

Dear Lady: That chick you referred to certainly produced a heap of mail from angry co-eds. Chickie said a survey in her dorm revealed that 85% of the girls were make-outs and 15% were hold-outs.

"Not so", screamed the letters from many, many campuses. And I am inclined to agree with the protesters.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: A family friend is being married next month. Today my husband received an invitation to a bachelor's party. At the bottom of the "invitation" was written this message: "Donation for golf clubs for the groom — $8 please."

We have never heard of such a thing and wonder if this is a new trend?

Just Folks

Dear Folks: The word "donation" suggests that the groom is a charity case. Is he?

It is proper for invited guests to pool resources and buy a gift for a bride or a groom, but to request a "donation" by mail is in abominable taste. I hope your husband sent his regrets.

New Romania-Russia Clash Seen in Talks

Bucharest, Romania (AP)— A summit meeting of Soviet bloc leaders continued amid indications of a new clash between the Soviet Union and little Romania over control of the Warsaw Pact's military forces

Romania's official press gave no progress report on the meeting of the Communist counterpart to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). The Soviet press made no mention of dissension and treated the meeting as a reaffirmation of solidarity.

The seven-nation meeting opened Monday at the former royal palace and continued there Tuesday.

No Rehearing

Philadelphia (UPI) — U.S. District Judge Ralph C Body refused to grant a hearing for Ralph Ginzburg on a petition for consideration of his five-year prison sentence for sending obscene material through the mails

Ginzburg, of New York, was convicted in December, 1963, and sentenced to five years in prison and fined $42,000 by Judge Body. The U.S. Supreme Court last May refused for a second time to review his conviction.

Ginzburg formerly published the magazines Eros, the Housewife's Handbook on Selective Promiscuity and Liaison

Ginzburg's attorney, Harold Kohn, told the jurist last week that his client was not the type of person who should have to spend five years in prison. Judge Body reminded Kohn that the sentence could have been five years on each count lodged against Ginzburg, or 140 years.

"That is what Congress thought of this act" Body said.

'Can't Buy Loyalty'

Hartford (UPI) — "There are some things money can't buy and one of them is loyalty," a federal judge said in sentencing a draft law violator to two years in prison.

The defendant, Albert Brown of New Haven had waived a jury trial and was found guilty previously by U.S. District Judge T. Emmet Clarie.

Brown appeared with his lawyer, Ira Grudberg, who made an eloquent plea, recommending that a fine be imposed It was then Judge Clarie said money could not buy loyalty.

Late July Talks Set

London (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson will fly to Washington at the end of this month to discuss with President Johnson possible new peace moves in the Vietnam conflict

Authoritative sources said a date in the last week of July has been agreed on for the important meeting announced last month

Barrientos Winner

La Paz, Bolivia (AP)— A U.S. Air Force-produced pilot who waged Bolivia's first political campaign by helicopter is scheduled to become his country's president on Aug. 6.

Air Force Gen. Rene Barrientos, 47, won an overwhelming victory in Sunday's presidential election The latest revised tabulation gave his Bolivian revolutionary front — the FRB — 191,000 votes to 115,000 for the combined opposition.

Barrientos' vice presidential running mate, Luis Adolfo Siles, and most FRB candidates for the 129-member congress also were elected, but the right-of-center Christian Democratic Community got enough votes to win the seats the constitution guarantees to the minority.

Hurlers Hunter, Peterson Beat the Heat

Journal Sports

LINCOLN, NEBR., TUES., JULY 5, 1966 PAGE 11

By Associated Press

Catfish Hunter beat the heat in the seventh inning but Fritz Peterson didn't cool off until the eighth.

Kansas City's Hunter, working with only two days rest in 95-degree weather at Baltimore Monday, pitched six strong innings as the Athletics snapped the American League-leading Orioles' winning streak at seven with a 9-6 victory.

New York's Peterson, meanwhile, rivaled the 95-degree temperature at Yankee Stadium by pitching 7⅓ perfect innings in a 5-2 victory over Chicago that gained the Yanks a split of their holiday doubleheader.

Hunter, 20 years old and Kansas City's biggest winner with eight victories, yielded four hits and three runs — two of them unearned — before going out for a pinch hitter in the seventh, when Dick Green's three-run homer gave the A's their winning margin.

Manager Alvin Dark said he hadn't planned on Hunter going all the way because of the heat and the young right-hander's lack of rest. Hunter beat Detroit 6-4 in his previous start last Friday.

Peterson, a 24-year-old rookie, retired the first 22 batters he faced before his own error ended the string and John Romano's single broke up the no-hit bid. He finished with a two-hitter and his seventh victory in 13 decisions.

"I started to realize what was happening in the middle of the fifth," Peterson said. "I was going to change my uniform — it was dirty and soaking wet — but I decided not to take any chances."

The young left-hander, a fast worker who has said, "I like to get a game over with so I can find out who won," dispatched the White Sox on 87 pitches.

The White Sox took the first game 5-0 behind the six-hit pitching of left-hander Gary Peters.

Elsewhere, the California Angels whipped Detroit 11-6, Minnesota edged Cleveland 5-4 and Washington divided a twin bill with Boston, winning the first game 6-4 and losing the night-cap 1-0.

In National League doubleheaders, Chicago tripped Pittsburgh 6-4 after bowing 7-5, St. Louis topped San Francisco 6-2 before losing 3-2 and New York swept Philadelphia 9-6 and 8-1. Los Angeles nipped Cincinnati 2-1 and Atlanta edged Houston 3-2

The Athletics, who have won four of their last five, jumped to a 9-3 lead over the Orioles, Green leading the way with five RBI. He batted twice during a six-run rally in the fifth, driving in the first run with a single and delivering another when he was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded.

Russ Snyder homered for the Orioles, who closed the gap with three runs in the ninth.

Peterson threw wildly after fielding Jerry Adair's roller with one out in the eighth and Romano followed with his ground single. Ken Berry then doubled in one run and Lee Elia sent across the other with a sacrifice fly.

Peterson's third inning single triggered a three-run rally, Lou Clinton singling across a pair, and Jake Gibbs knocked in two more with a single in the fifth as the Yankees rolled up a 5-0 lead in the second game.

Bankers Shut Out Gerry's

First National Bank broke open a scoreless battle in the top of the 11th inning to take a 3-0 decision over Gerry's in American Legion baseball action at Sherman Field Monday night.

The rally, ignited by singles by Dennis Beckmann and Tom Kos, broke up a tight pitching duel between First National's Steve Mitchell and Gerry's Delbert Smith. Just one runner had advanced as far as third base in the first nine innings.

Beckmann and Kos moved up on a sacrifice by Tom Hayes, then Beckmann scored on a wild pitch and Kos came home on an infield error. Mitchell scored the third run, reaching base on the error and scoring on Dick Henderson's single.

Mitchell walked just two and gave up only three singles in his 11-inning stint.

Smith, who had pitched only four innings prior to Monday night, posted 15 strikeouts.

ALL-STAR PREVIEW—Bill Curry of the Green Bay Packers (in shirtsleeves) gives words of wisdom to four future Packers as the group huddles in workouts for the Saturday All-America game at Atlanta. The players are Gale Gillingham, Minnesota (left), Jim Grabowski, Illinois; Tony Jeter, Nebraska; and Donny Anderson, Texas Tech.

Stars Please Both Coaches

Atlanta (AP) — The face of Tommy Prothro, coach of the West All-Stars, was all smiles.

"I was real satisfied with the workout," he said after watching his charges begin preparation for the Coaches' All-America All-Star football game here next Saturday.

One thing that made him smile was 267-pound Aaron Brown, who arrived at the practice field at least 15 minutes ahead of time and was hard at work when the others arrived.

"Got to lose some weight," Brown said. "I'd like to get down to 255-260." This fall he will cast his pro lot with the Kansas City Chiefs.

The West and East squads began intensive work on their various offensive and defensive patterns. When the session was over, Duffy Daugherty, East coach, also said he was satisfied. "The boys have a good attitude and are very cooperative," he added.

The Michigan State mentor said he had switched Kentucky halfback Rodger Bird from defense "and he's adapted well to it. He has good speed."

Daugherty also said Tom Barrington is playing well at three positions. "We've been using him at wingback, fullback and left halfback. Of course, that's nothing new to him. He played all four positions at Ohio State. He started at quarterback as a sophomore."

Neither coach has decided on a starting quarterback, although Missouri's Gary Lane looked good rolling out for the West and Alabama's Steve Sloan was throwing well for the East.

Randy Johnson of Texas A&I is Lane's competition. Sloan is battling Georgia's Preston Ridlehuber for the job.

Prothro said he didn't have much opportunity to look at the defense, "but I believe everybody's doing well. The offense looks pretty good and I was especially impressed with Glen Ray Hines and Francis Peay at tackle and James Lindsey in the backfield." Peay is from Missouri and Lindsey and Hines from Arkansas.

Prothro said he had not decided on a starting backfield either.

AL Fans Stay Away From Tilts

By The Associated Press

American League baseball fans stayed away from the ball parks Monday and went elsewhere for their observance of Independence Day.

Attendance for the AL games suffered a big dip from last year when 126,688 fans saw eight games. The total attendance for seven games this year was only 73,916.

Only one AL game attracted a bigger crowd than the smallest turnout in the National League. That was the twilight contest between Kansas City and the first-place Orioles at Baltimore which drew 24,129.

Smallest crowds were 9,002 for a single game between California and Detroit at Detroit and 8,916 for a doubleheader between Washington and Boston at Boston.

Eight NL games drew 130,922 compared with a turnout of 118,376 for seven games last year. Largest NL crowd was 39,172 for a doubleheader between St. Louis and the first-place Giants at San Francisco. The smallest was 19,208 for New York at Philadelphia.

16 Short of Goal

Houston Gives Up On Robin Roberts

Houston (AP) — Robin Roberts has pitched more than 4,600 major league innings and his dream of winning 300 games was almost a reality when the Houston Astros placed him on waivers Monday.

"I don't want to say anything I might wish I hadn't the next day," was Roberts' only comment.

The 39-year-old righthander — who had won more games than any other active pitcher — was just 16 triumphs shy of his 300-win goal.

He learned the news shortly before Monday's game with the Atlanta Braves, which the Astros lost 3-2.

The 1966 season had been unkind to Roberts. He won three games but lost five. He completed just one of his 12 starts and showed well in only one of his last four tries.

It was a different story last year. He signed with Houston as a free agent in August, after requesting his release from the Baltimore Orioles, and won his first four games for the Astros—including successive shutouts in his first two appearances.

Robin Roberts
On Waivers

Roberts, who will be replaced by young Don Arlich of the Astros' Oklahoma City club, underwent surgery after the 1965 season to remove loose bone fragments from his right elbow. In spring training this year, he appeared to be in good shape.

Astro Manager Grady Hatton called Roberts "one of the greatest pitchers of all time" when he announced his decision Monday.

"But we felt the acquisition of a left-hand relief pitcher was necessary to keep our club in the fight for the pennant," Hatton said.

Airman Captures Net Title

Tom Young of Offutt Air Force Base won the men's singles finals of the Nebraska State Closed Tennis Tournament Monday with a 6-0, 7-5 decision over fellow airman Bill Foster at the Lincoln Tennis Club.

Young moved into the finals with an easy 6-0, 6-0 victory over Grand Island's Jerry Anderson. Foster had a tougher time with Roy Colson in the semifinals. Foster defeated the Lincolnite and tournament director, 7-5, 7-5.

Sue Schotte of Omaha won the women's singles crown, defeating Lincoln's Barb Adams, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Adams had one of the few upsets in the tournament, trimming top-seeded Bobbie Rasmussen, 6-4, 9-7, to earn a finals bid.

In doubles Young and Foster hooked up to win men's title, 7-5, 6-1, over Offutt's Tom Tonn and Lou Gerdes of Omaha.

Mrs. Schotte and Miss Rasmussen won the women's doubles with a 6-3, 6-3 win over Lincoln's Barb Ferguson and Iv Dillin.

Ed Rowley and Barry Jackman of Lincoln won the veterans' doubles, 6-4, 6-1 over Duke Slater and Jack Ringwalt of Omaha. Jackman lost the vets' singles finals, 6-3, 6-0, to Omahan Gerdes. Junior final:

Girls 12 and under Singles—Becky Glover, Grand Island def. Julie Simon, Omaha, 6-0, 6-0.
Girls 18 and Under Doubles—Becky and Lynn Glover def. Delora Pavelka-Terry Wulff, Omaha, 6-3, 6-3.
Girls 16 and Under Singles—Delora Pavelka, Omaha def. Amy Hutchins, Omaha, 6-0, 6-0.

Ron Stone Reclaimed

The Baltimore Orioles announced Monday they have reclaimed outfielder-first baseman Ron Stone, who had been selected by Kansas City in last winter's baseball draft.

Since Stone did not stick with the A's, the Orioles had first claim and sent him to Elmira of the Eastern League . . .

The New York Mets purchased Larry Elliot, left-handed hitting outfielder who is the International League's RBI leader, from their Jacksonville, Fla., farm club Tuesday . . .

Los Angeles has purchased outfielder Jim Barbieri from its Spokane farm club, it was announced Tuesday.

Clay Fights German On Sept. 10

Frankfurt, Germany (AP) — European champion Karl Mildenberger of West Germany signed a contract Tuesday to meet Cassius Clay in a world title bout in Frankfurt's soccer stadium Sept. 10.

The signing took place in an office at Frankfurt's airport just before Mildenberger flew to London for a meeting with Jarves Astraire, who holds the world television rights for the fight.

Mildenberger agreed to a share of 15 per cent of the total receipts from the fight.

Joachim Goettert, the German promoter, said Clay had signed the contract in New York last Friday.

Goettert said he estimated gross receipts of $1,500,000.

He said Clay would receive a guarantee of between $300,000 and $400,000, plus a percentage of the receipts. But he did not disclose the details.

Clay first has to defend the championship against Britain's Brian London in England on Aug. 6.

O's Make Noise Without Chirps

Baltimore (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles are winging ahead of the field in the American League, but they don't do much chirping on the bench.

That's all right with Frank Robinson, but it took awhile for the former National Leaguer to adjust to a relatively quiet dugout.

"In the National League there's a lot of rah-rah stuff," Robinson said. "When we won the pennant at Cincinnati in 1961, it was almost like playing for a college or high school team.

"It's not the same in this league. The game is more wide open in the National, and maybe that accounts for it."

But that doesn't mean the Orioles lack team spirit.

"The team has a lot of spirit," Robinson said, "even though not much is said. You just sense it. We don't get down on ourselves and we don't quit when we're behind but the guys don't say much when we're ahead either.

"It's a different type of confidence—I call it quiet—than I was used to. It took me by surprise in spring training. The guys just sit back and are more relaxed."

Robinson is a past master with the quip, however, and the verbal needles are tossed around freely by the Orioles.

"I get on 'em, and they get back at me," Robinson said. "It's good for the club."

"I like our chances a lot better than even three weeks ago," Robinson said. "We've been playing good ball, and opened up a lead. But I still think Cleveland and Detroit will give us a lot of trouble."

As for the different type of team spirit, Robinson says: "It works the quiet way, too."

Fisherman Nabs Early Walleye

An Elwood fisherman apparently believes in getting up early to catch the lunkers napping, the Game Commission reports.

Vern C. Miller of Elwood latched on to an 11-pound walleye at Johnson Lake at 2 30 a.m. on June 16 to qualify for a Master Angler Award His was the largest of 10 walleye to qualify and was taken on a spinner-night crawler combination Eight of the lunkers came from Lake Maloney and 2 from Johnson Lake Others qualifying for Master Angler Awards on the list include

Arthur H Olsen, 10 pound walleye J L Carroll 8-pound 14-ounce walleye, Claude B Sheetz, 8-pound, 11 ounce walleye D B Heinzle, 8 pound, 6-ounce walleye, Clifford D Wills 8-pound walleye, Herman Zona 8 pound walleye Freda Tabler, 8 pound walleye, all of North Platte and all fishing in Maloney William Scheidt of McCook took an 8 pound, 8-ounce walleye at Maloney and John Holmes duplicated that feat at Johnson Lake

Five largemouth bass qualified and were taken by Robert H Leinberger of Lincoln, 6 pounds, 7½ ounces from a North Loup River sandpit Robert A Aylwarl of Omaha 5 pounds, from a Platte River sandpit Dean Heth of Millard 6 pounds, 7 ounces, from Merritt Reservoir, Don Thompson of Alvion, 5 pounds 8 ounces, from a Boone County gravel pit, and by Ron Helmick of Lincoln, 5 pounds, 2 ounces, from Burchard Lake

Christine M Brown of Bucktail took a 3-pound, 8 ounce smallmouth bass from Lake McConaughy and George Green of Hershey caught a 5-pound, 12-ounce brown trout to qualify The big trout came from Birdwood Creek in Lincoln County Others qualifying included Francis Tische of Lincoln, 1 pound, 12 ¼-ounce brook trout from a Brown County farm pond, Mrs Abe Duryea of Alliance, 2 pound, 3-ounce white crappie from Frye Lake Melvin Armstrong of Gordon 15-pound, 4-ounce channel catfish from Smith Lake, and Chuck Keown of Grand Island, 3-pound, 4-ounce bullhead from a Hall County sandpit The big bullhead measured 15½ inches long and 13 inches in girth

McQuagg Wins Race

Daytona Beach, Fla (AP) — Sam McQuagg went from rookie to the top of the class in one year when he drove a 1966 Dodge Charger to victory Monday in the Firecracker 400 over a field of the best stock car pilots in America

The 29-year-old part-time carpenter and auto mechanic from Columbus, Ga., took the lead on the first lap with a daring sweep from his fourth starting position, and yielded first place only 32 of the 160 laps around the 2.5-mile high banked Daytona International Speedway.

He set a record of 153.813 miles per hour, despite four caution flags for a series of minor spins and wrecks.

The only injury was a cut hand suffered by Harold Smith when his windshield flew out.

The old record for the Firecracker 400 was set by A. J. Foyt in a Dodge two years ago at 151 451 m p h.

13-Run Spurt Aids Witt's 15-0 Victory

The Lincoln Optimists Joe Starita pitched hitless ball for three innings but then saw his no-hit hopes smashed as Ken Witt's exploded for 13 runs in the top of the fourth to take a 15-0 American Legion Junior baseball victory at Sherman Field Monday night

Witt's scored all 13 fourth-inning runs before the Optimists could get an out. Starita gave up seven singles, two doubles, walked one and hit one batsman before being replaced by Gary Garrison who had no better luck.

Starita was charged with eight runs in the inning, all earned, and Garrison gave up five more.

Witt's scored another run in the fifth on three hits, then tallied in the seventh when John McEniry tripled and scored on Mike Butler's double.

McEnry allowed just three hits in his seven-inning stint, while striking out six and walking just one. Jim Campbell, Starita and Garrison got the only Optimist hits.

Five Track Marks Fall In Ak Races

Omaha — Five track records and several other all-time highs were on the books as the curtain came down on the 42-day race meeting here at Ak-Sar-Ben Monday.

Two track records fell on the final day with Barbacoma winning the $25,000 George Brandeis Memorial Handicap in 1·48 4-5 for the mile and an eighth

The final race of the meet also produced a track record when Hastillity, owned by Lincoln's Jerome W. Hittner and ridden by Larry Bird covered the mile and ⅝ in 2:45 3-5.

Earlier in the meet Missle Pit was clocked in 52 seconds for 4½ furlongs, Bazaar in 1·03 1-5 for 5½ furlongs and North Bend went a mile and half in 2·31 3-5.

The handle for the meet also produced an all-time high with $31,775,957 pushed through the windows. The former high was $31,490,237.

Attendance was up over last year, 552,412 to 550,164, but was shy of the record of 1964 when 552,650 turf fans went to the track.

Horses owned by Marion H. Van Berg won 28 races, the most ever here, one more than he won in 1960.

And Willie Fleming, who won the jockey crown for the second straight year, had the most mounts (278) a jockey has ever ridden here Jerry Lambert rode 263 in 1963.

Jack Van Berg also repeated as the leading trainer showing a 28-22-21 win-place-show mark

Unique Policy

Miami, Fla. (UPI) — The Intercontinental Hotel in Willaimstad, Curacao, which is built on the site of an old fort directly on the Caribbean, is the only hotel in the world to carry marine collision insurance, says the South American Travel Organization. So far, there have been no mishaps despite the many ships entering the harbor.

Straight From Horse's Mouth

Kingsport, Tenn. (AP)—Mrs. Margie Castle, cashier at a supermarket here, asked for some sort of identification when a man walked into the store and asked that his check be cashed. The man reached into his mouth and pulled out his upper plate. On it, his name had been branded. Mrs. Castle cashed the check.

Freeman Invited To State

Answer Criticism

Los Angeles (AP)—Gov. Frank B. Morrison of Nebraska invited U.S. Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman to his state to defend himself against criticism by U.S. Sen. Carl Curtis, R-Neb.

Democrat Morrison is challenging Curtis for his Senate seat.

Morrison scheduled a news conference for Freeman July 23 and invited Curtis and his agriculture adviser. Lincoln attorney Richard Smith, to appear with the secretary.

Curtis, Morrison said, has charged that Freeman is intentionally "depressing farm prices" and "selling the farmer down the river."

Morrison, in Los Angeles for the National Governors' Conference, said he is reserving seats at the news conference for both Curtis and Smith so they can answer questions and "otherwise produce evidence in support of their charges of betrayal by the secretary."

2 Cabins Dropped Into Lake

Omaha (AP) — An expanse of sand slipped into Hansen's Lake, located about three miles south of Offutt Air Force Base, carrying two cabins into the water.

Most of the cabins in the area are used for weekend retreats.

The cabin owned by Col. Eugene H. Freeman of Offutt was partly covered with water and that owned by Don Jefferson of Ralston was submerged.

"It's just one of those things I guess," commented Col. Freeman. He said he didn't have insurance to cover this kind of mishap. He said the sand had sloped gently into the lake from his cabin.

The collapse of the expanse of about 200 feet by 50 feet, cut off telephone service to 15 homes.

'Especially Prepared' Scouts at Beatrice Ready for Emergency

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Beatrice — "Be Prepared" is the motto of all Boy Scouts; these should change it to "Be Especially Prepared."

They're the 13 senior members of Troop 223, self-named as well as the Senior Emergency Squad. Ready they are for tornadoes, Civil Defense disasters, persons drowned or lost, downed aircraft or "just about any emergency you can think of."

"In practice alerts we've contacted every man in five minutes and had them on the job in just a few more," said Gene Gilmore, advisor and a town newcomer. The 20-year-old Life Scouter had promoted the group-within-a-group after helping with a similar operation at his native Parsons, Kan.

He's also assistant to Scoutmaster Harold Ramsour with some 35 boys of the parent troop. One of Ramsour's two SES sons, Mark, shares the top rank of Eagle with Charles Genrich.

Other members include twins Terry and Jerry Genrich, Bob Severance, Richard Cass, Bruce Ramsour, Robert Ide, Mike Buess, Mike Steuck, Tom Mahlin, Joe James and Bruce Chapman.

Supervished Races

Concentrating so far on radio and search-rescue training, the squad has performed only one co-operative "good deed" for real. That was helping supervise the recent Homesteader Days canoe races.

"Ninety per cent of the boys have first aid and personal fitness badges, and all are at least First Class Scouts," noted Gilmore. "Some have their own two-ways and we have access to plenty of others."

Arrangements have been made with Citizens Band radio enthusiasts for a 24-hour emergency standby. Other plans will unfold when the two-month-old squad gains maturity.

"So far there have been no emergencies and of course we hope there aren't any," added the advisor. "But if and when they come, SES will be prepared—especially prepared."

President Signs Right-to-Know Bill

Law Limits Authority To Withhold Information

San Antonio, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson signed the freedom-of-information bill and said he does not share the concern of some that it will impair government operations.

"I signed this measure with a deep sense of pride that the United States is an open society in which the people's right to know is cherished and guarded," Johnson said.

Right To Know

The new act establishes as law the philosophy that Americans have the right to know what their government is doing.

The law limits the power of federal officials to withhold information. There is procedure for review by federal courts when information is withheld. When this occurs the burden is on the government to prove its action was justified.

Application of the law is limited to federal executive agencies. It does not extend to state and local governments nor does it apply to Congress which conducts much of its business in secrecy.

Johnson said in a statement:

"This legislation springs from one of our most essential principles: a democracy works best when the people have all the information that the security of the nation permits.

Curtains of Secrecy

"No one should be able to pull curtains of secrecy around decisions which can be revealed without injury to the public interest.

"At the same time, the welfare of the nation or the rights of individuals may require that some documents not be made available. As long as threats to peace exist, for example, there must be military secrets."

And Johnson, going beyond the bill itself, lined up squarely behind the right of the press to keep its sources of information confidential with this observation:

"A citizen must be able in confidence to complain to his government and to provide information, just as he is — or should be — free to confide in the press without fear of reprisal or of being required to reveal or discuss his sources."

In some states a newspaperman can be fined or jailed for refusing to tell a grand jury or a judge where he got information he printed.

Johnson said fairness to individuals also requires:

—Information accumulated in personnel files be protected from disclosure.

—Officials within the government be able to communicate with one another fully and frankly without publicity.

Saturn Puts 29-Ton Rocket Stage in Orbit

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP)—America's heaviest satellite—a 29-ton rocket stage like that which one day will propel astronauts to the moon—vaulted into orbit Tuesday. It was filled with 10 tons of liquid hydrogen in an engineering test to determine if this high-energy fuel has at last been harnessed for space use.

A 17-story-tall Saturn 1 rocket, most powerful ever fired by the United States, thundered off its launching pad at 8:53 a.m. CST on the 1.6 million pounds of thrust and trailed a plume of fire more than 500 feet long as it darted into the sky.

Eight minutes later, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced that the 92-foot second stage had ignited with a 200,000-pound thrust burst and drilled itself into an arbit about 118 miles above the earth.

The launching was held up nearly two hours because of the failure of one of two television cameras located in the fuel tank to monitor behavior of liquid hydrogen fuel. Flight controllers finally decided to launch with only one of the cameras operating.

Officials said several hours would be required to determine how successful the mission was. They termed the early portion highly successful.

Success would clear the way for the launching of an unmanned Apollo moon ship in August and the flight of a three-man Apollo crew on an earth orbit mission in November. Both would be boosted by Saturn 1 rockets.

Mrs. Swanson Of Omaha Dies

Omaha (AP) — The wife of the chairman of the board of the Nebraska Clothing Company, Mrs. W. O. Swanson, died at a local hospital after a brief illness. She was 76.

In addition to her husband, survivors include a son, John, of Evanston, Ill., a daughter, Mrs. John D. Ashford of Omaha, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Augustana Lutheran Church in Omaha.

Felhabers Sell Madison Paper

Madison—Sale of the Madison Star-Mail to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C Flack of Norwood, N.J., has been announced by Mr and Mrs H F Felhaber, who have published the weekly newspaper for the past four and a half years.

This marks the close of a 38-year career in the weekly newspaper field for the Felhabers They owned or managed weeklies in South Dakota, Iowa and Ohio before coming to Madison.

Rusk Told Japan Will Continue China Contacts

Kyoto, Japan (AP) — Japan told the United States it will continue its contacts with Communist China to help Peking break out of self-imposed isolation.

Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina expressed the Japanese government's view as he and U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk opened the fifth annual meeting of Japanese and American cabinet officers.

The three-day conference convened with leftist demonstrators marching in the streets of ancient Kyoto to protest U.S. policy in Vietnam. A heavy police guard kept the 2,000 marchers a third of a mile from the conference hall.

Shiina told Rusk and four other U.S. Cabinet members attending the closed meeting that the Chinese Communists seemed pragmatic in their actions toward Japan despite verbal attacks on its government. Rusk indicated a much harsher assessment of Peking.

The Japanese foreign minister said it was unclear whether the purge in Communist China meant a power struggle or an ideological change. "At any rate there is tension" on the mainland, he said.

Rusk said in the past 18 months Communist China had suffered "severe reverses" and "growing isolation" from the rest of the world but was "continuing its hostility and intransigence toward the United States and the rest of the world."

Rusk assured the Japanese that "The United States is seeking every possible avenue to find peace" in Vietnam. Shiina expressed the hope for a prompt peaceful settlement. Neither mentioned the recent U.S. bombings in the Hanoi-Haiphong area.

Much of the conference is to be devoted to economic questions.

Governors Cite Doubts

Los Angeles (AP) — The nation's governors come to grips with the question of restoring machinery to deal with the explosive issues of the Vietnam war and civil rights.

In the first formal session of their 58th annual conference, the governors took up proposed amendments which would revive the resolutions-making process they junked in 1963 in a bitter fight over a Republican attempt to expose Democratic divisions over racial equality proposals.

Now the politically disturbing Vietnam conflict hangs like a cloud over a conference where the everyday issues of federal-state relations, highway safety and mental health have been all but blotted out in preliminary discussions.

There is no doubt that if the Democrats push for it, they can get an endorsement from the conference for President Johnson's Vietnam policies.

But a check of a score of governors uncovered doubts and reservations, even among the President's supporters, about the latest bombings in North Vietnam.

Gov. Daniel Evans, Washington Republican, said that the President may be on the right track in stepping up the bombings, "but it seems to me that over the past year and a half we have attempted something similar in nature but it never seems to end the war."

Classified Neighbors Are Doing More!

Journal-Star Want Ad users know what they are about. By using classification to buy, sell and trade, they classify themselves as profit-makers.

Classified is the shopping center in the home. It's the modern way to communicate with thousands of regional neighbors who are also trying to "make ends meet." And the 10 day bargain rate makes it economical. A ten word ad appears for 10 days, in both the Journal and the Star, for only $4 . . . and you pay for only the number of days the ad runs!

So whether you're in the red and want to get ahead or giving your vacation fund a boost, read & use the Want Ads . . . just like thousands of your "do more" neighbors.

$10,090 Ak Check for Signals

Omaha — Ak-Sar-Ben presented a check for $10,000 to the City of Omaha Tuesday for the purchase of more school crossing signals.

This is the eighth year in which Ak-Sar-Ben has helped with the purchase of pedestrian-actuated signals. A total of $72,878 has now been given by Ak-Sar-Ben for this purpose.

In addition, Ak-Sar-Ben has given $13,361 for safety and fire patrol belts for the public and parochial schools. The entire total now donated is $86,239.

China Will Retaliate If Attacked

Tokyo (UPI) — Communist China warned it would retaliate if it were attacked by Americans for aiding the Vietnamese Communists.

The official Peoples Daily charged again that there was U.S.-Soviet collusion in the Southeast Asian war.

The official newspaper of the Chinese Central Committee said American bombing north of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam had scrapped the Geneva agreements and "destroyed" the demarcation line between the two countries.

The war is now unbounded, the editorial said, and to fear its extension would be capitulation to American blackmail.

The paper pledged Red Chinese support and aid to "any country falling victim to the aggression of imperialism headed by the United States. If such action should result in U.S. aggression against China, we will resolutely strike back without any hesitation."

The Chinese said their forces are standing by to do whatever is needed to win the war, and threatened unnamed countermeasures.

Anti-Strike Law 'Will Kill Labor'

Hoffa Talks At Convention

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa said the only thing that could destroy organized labor is a federal anti-strike law.

Hoffa told convention delegates:

"One thing, and one thing only, can destroy organized labor and that is the Congress of the United States by passing restrictive legislation to take away . . . the right to a strike," Hoffa said.

"Remember that and everything will come out all right," Hoffa told some 2,000 Teamster delegates.

The twice-convicted Hoffa also said Congress should pay more attention to protecting the right of privacy against wire tapping and "the question of innocent as against guilty" in court cases.

"The American people, not just the elected ones, are the backbone of democracy," Hoffa said.

Hoffa is unopposed for a new five-year term as Teamsters chief and a $25,000 pay raise to $100,000 a year despite prison sentences totaling 13 years pending against him.

Michigan Man Gets University Hospital Post

Omaha—Ralph J. Cerny, 23, of Ann Arbor, Mich., has been appointed assistant administrator of University of Nebraska Hospital.

Cerny

As assistant administrator, Cerny will be responsible for the outpatient services, the admitting department, business office and the medical record departments of University Hospital.

Cerny received his bachelor of arts degree from Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., in 1964 and a master's in hospital administration from the University of Michigan in June, 1966. For the past year he served as an administrative resident at University Hospital at Ann Arbor, Mich.

The assistant administratorship was held by Richard Schripsema until Feb. 1, 1966, when he was appointed administrator of University of Nebraska Hospital.

Bills Readied For Water Work Studies

Washington (AP)—Bills ready for final congressional action next week would authorize studies of 35 proposed new water projects.

Senate and House Interior Committees have approved bills calling for studies of projects proposed by the Federal Reclamation Bureau.

Identical bills were introduced by chairmen of the Senate and House Interior Committees, Sen. Harry M. Jackson, D-Wash., and Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., at the request of the Interior Department.

They called for legal authority to conduct about 100 feasibility studies of projects completed, under way and proposed. Additionally, studies of these new proposals were requested in both bills.

Kansas — Scandia Unit, Bostwick Division Missouri River Basin Project (MRBP); Smoky Hill River Kanopolis Unit, MRBP; Solomon River Glen Elder Irrigation Unit, MRBP.

Nebraska — Upper Elkhorn River Highland Unit, MRBP.

Other studies added by the Senate committee included:

Kansas-Nelson Buck Unit, Kansas Division, MRBP.

This Can Only Happen Once

Pecos, Tex. (AP) — A Pecos farmer, moving a load of cantaloupes to market, discovered that he had no brakes. He sped across a train track just ahead of a train, collided with the right rear tire of a tractor trailer rig, careened across Highway 80 and finally stopped in a field.

Not one cantaloupe spilled, and no one was injured.

What will the others be worth a year from now?
The Cadillac car holds its value far beyond any other automobile at or near its price. Let your Cadillac dealer explain today why now, more than ever, it's great . . . going Cadillac!
There is one simple way to measure the worth of any other luxury car. compare it to the way a Cadillac keeps its value. For Cadillac is the grand champion in this most telling of all motor car tests—and at resale returns a higher percentage of its original cost than any other car built in the land. There are many reasons. The first is Cadillac quality—recognized wherever automobiles are known. Then there is Cadillac beauty and luxury—so advanced that the car retains its desirability long after others have lost their appeal. And there is Cadillac safety, performance, dependability and operating economy. What will your car be worth a year—or even three years—from now? If it's a Cadillac, the answer is predictably pleasant. Get the facts today from your authorized dealer. He's an expert in serving the world's most demanding motorists—and his interest in your complete satisfaction will continue throughout your ownership. Isn't it time you put a Cadillac in your life?

Negro Youths Throw Rocks At Des Moines

Des Moines (UPI) — A mob of between 200 and 400 young Negroes threw rocks and bottles at policemen during a distrubance in a predominantly Negro section of Des Moines Monday night and early Tuesday.

No policemen were injured The disturbance began about 10 p m Monday near Good Park Police arrested two juveniles and charged them with violating Des Moines curfew ordinance

An extra shift of policemen was kept on duty until the disturbance was ended. Police said the incident was "spontaneous and there is no reason to believe it will break out again."

Weather Delaying Junior Golf

Heat Relief, Rain Needed

City Park and Recreation Director Jim Ager, like many a Lincoln home owner, is waiting with crossed fingers for some good weather for bluegrass — some cool days with some rain

If he gets it, Ager says he will probably be able to open the new junior golf course in Antelope Park to limited play by early September

But he won't even need much of a weather break to sow two other new recreation facilities opened within the next few days.

Ager told the City Council Tuesday that new instructional swimming pools at Woods Park and in Belmont will be open either by this week end or by next Monday

Ager gave the Council this run-down on the new golf course and swimming pools

Junior golf course — Noting that he had recently predicted an August opening, Ager said a recent inspection showed that grass seeded on fairways No. 1 and 9, in storm sewer areas, did not take.

The grass is being re-seeded and "with luck" the course will be ready for use by kids on a week-end basis by the first of September.

Ager noted that long-range plans call for the junior course to be opened to adults when youngsters are in school.

But I don't want to open it to adults until the kids have a good crack at it" he said Ager said the thinking has been that the course is primarily for youngsters age 15 and under.

Swimming pools — Ager said the contractor, Broer Construction Co., has completed the first coat of painting on the new pools at Woods Park and at 14th and Manatt The second coat was to be applied Tuesday

If not ready for opening by the end of the week Ager said the pools will be ready to go next Monday

Townsend Plan Group Is Being Reorganized

Reorganization of the corporate structure of Townsend Plan, Inc is the aim of a conference this week in Lincoln.

Dissolving of the corporation will be provided for by more than 100 corporation directors, trustees and officers representing some 36 states.

According to Secretary John Doyle Elliott of Washington, D C , "this is a move that should have been made 10 years ago "

Chief function of the foundation will be to handle gifts and donations for the purpose of supporting an organized congressional lobby

Principal legislation currently supported by the organization is H R. 2841 introduced by Rep John J McFall of California

The McFall bill would revise Title II of the Federal Social Security Law to provide from $225 to $250 per month for every retired person over the age of 60.

The plan, which would include disability payments for those under age 60, would be financed by a 2% tax on all business transactions, contracts and income.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Lincoln County Wheat Reported 'Fabulous'

The State Department of Labor reported Lincoln County wheat harvest yields of from 35 to 53 bushels per acre Tuesday.

"Many of the reports regarding yields on the new wheat varieties in Nebraska are fabulous. Even fields that appeared almost lost earlier in the year are coming up with yields in the 30 bushel per acre range," said Don E. Christenson of the Department of Labor.

Christenson said many of the yield reports have been unheard of in previous good wheat years.

"Formerly we couldn't think of 58 to 60-bushel yields in parts of Nebraska that are now reporting that kind of crop," said Christenson.

Sidney Reports Are Encouraging

Sidney (AP) — The wheat harvest got under way in the Nebraska Panhandle the July 4th weekend and first returns from the fields were most encouraging.

Chappell reported 130 truck loads of wheat Monday indicating yields of 30 to 35 bushels per acre. The wheat tested 60 pounds per bushel and had a low moisture content.

One York Field Yields 74.5 Bu.

York (AP) — A harvest report which may be a record for the new season to date came in from York County Tuesday.

Sid Johnson, who farms one mile north of York, harvested a 13-acre plot which yielded 74½ bushels per acre. The test weight was not given but the moisture content was reported slightly over 11%.

Appeal Taken On Red Cloud Airport Ruling

By Associated Press

An attempt to block the Red Cloud Airport Authority's plans to construct a new airport for the south central Nebraska community has been carried to the state Supreme Court.

Harry Obitz of Red Cloud filed an appeal from District Judge Norris Chadderdon's Apr. 5 ruling which denied an injuction sought by Obitz against the Airport Authority.

The Authority agreed to issue bonds to finance acquisition of a site and construction of the new airport, and it signed an agreement with the First Nebraska Securities Corp. for sale and purchase of the bonds.

Obitz filed a lawsuit which contended among other things that the bond agreement was unconstitutional and the Airport Authority cannot pledge a one-mill tax as bond security or condemn land in its own name.

Nominees Are Chosen

The executive Council of the Nebraska State Bar Assn. nominated three to serve in the association's top positions at meetings held in Lincoln.

Those nominated are: president elect, George B. Boland, Omaha; member at large of the Executive Council, Harry B. Cohen, Omaha; member of House of Delegates of the American Bar Assn., John J. Wilson, Lincoln.

Nominations for members of the House of Delegates from the even numbered districts are:

Second Dist.: Dixon G. Adams, Bellevue, Walter H. Smith, Plattsmouth; Fourth Dist.; Robert K. Adams, Thomas R. Burke, Clayton Byam, Leo Eisenstatt, Robert C. Fisk, Tyler B. Gaines, Francis P. Matthews, Robert D. Mullin, John E. North, all of Omaha; Sixth Dist.: Lumir Otradovsky, Schuyler, Charles H. Yost, Fremont; Eighth Dist.: Lansing Anderson, Holdrege, Alfred W. Blessing, Hastings; Twelfth Dist.: James M. Knapp, Kearney; Fourteenth Dist.: Henry W. Curtis, Imperial; Sixteenth Dist.: Robert R. Moran, Alliance; Eighteenth Dist.: William B. Rist, Beatrice; Twentieth Dist.: Richard J. Haggart, St. Paul.

Nominating petitions will be received through Aug. 15. In the event four nominations, twice the number elected, are not submitted, additional nominations will be made by the executive council.

The annual 1966 meeting of the State Bar Assn. will be held at Hotel Sheraton-Fontenelle, Omaha, on October 13-14. The House of Delegates will meet at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Oct. 12.

Woo Hing One Tough Cookie

San Mateo, Calif. (UPI) —Woo Hing quit his job as cook in the home of Rose de Benedetti to return to his native China to die in keeping with oriental tradition.

It didn't work and he got bored. After two months, Woo Hing flew back to Mrs. De Benedetti's home to cook some more.

That was two years ago and Woo Hing celebrated his 100th birthday this week.

Two Fireworks Blasts Cause Minor Damage

Fireworks were used to destroy property at two Lincoln homes Monday, according to Lincoln police.

The mailbox of C. C. Marsh of 1000 Mulder Drive was blown apart after a cherry bomb exploded inside. Cost of replacement is estimated at $8.

John C. Cox of 6310 Sumner reported to police that a $1 9-inch by 13-inch window was blown out of a home at 6640 Everett by a firecracker.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING AS REQUIRED BY THE OFFICE OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY
Program Proposals to be Submitted by the Lincoln Action Program

A public hearing concerning proposals to be submitted to the Office of Economic Opportunity for funding with Federal money will be held on Friday, July 15, 1966, at 7:30 p.m. in three locations:

Malone Community Center, 2030 "T" Street, Lincoln, Nebraska

Salvation Army Community Center, 1645 North 27th Street, Lincoln

Lincoln Center Building, 215 South 15th Street, Lincoln

The proposals to be discussed include the following:

Conduct and Administration of the Lincoln Action Program

Neighborhood Aides and Office Staff to carry on coordination of the war on poverty in the neighborhood and city.

Basic Education—Delegate Agency, Lincoln Public Schools

Provision of tuition and books for persons without financial means to complete adult high school.

Head Start—Delegate Agency, Lincoln Public Schools

Provision of a pre-school year-round program for children of low-income families.

Legal Service—Delegate Agency, Lincoln Legal Service Society

Provision of legal aid to persons financially unable to purchase the services of an attorney.

Day Care—Delegate Agency—to be announced

Provision of care for pre-school and elementary school age children for parents who are working or in special job training programs.

After a brief explanation of each program planned, ample time will be given for every interested citizen to express his ideas and suggestions related to the conduct and administration of these proposals.

We encourage those to attend whose own family or a neighbor's family may be using these services. If there are any questions about any of these proposals prior to the meeting time, please feel free to call the Lincoln Action Program office (475-4561) for further information.

NOTICE OF REDEMPTION
Lockwood Grader Corporation
6% Sinking Fund Debentures, Series A
Dated March 1, 1961, due March 1, 1971

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of Article Five of the Trust Indenture dated as of March 1, 1961, between Lockwood Grader Corporation and First Continental National Bank & Trust Company (now known as First National Bank & Trust Company of Lincoln), Trustee, pursuant to which the 6% Sinking Fund Debentures, Series A, of Lockwood Grader Corporation, dated March 1, 1961 (the "Debentures") were issued, Seilon, Inc. (the "Company") which by Supplemental Indenture dated as of May 2, 1966, between the Company and the First National Bank & Trust Company of Lincoln has assumed the Debentures, has elected to redeem on August 1, 1966, all of the Debentures then outstanding at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with interest accrued to the redemption date.

Payment of the redemption price will be made at the office of First National Bank & Trust Company of Lincoln, 12th & N Streets, Lincoln, Nebraska, at any time on or after August 1, 1966, upon presentation and surrender at such office of the Debentures, together with all unmatured coupons thereto appertaining. On and after August 1, 1966, interest on the Debentures will cease to accrue.

Warrants for the purchase of Class A Common Stock, $2 par value of Lockwood Grader Corporation originally attached to the Debentures may be exercised up to (but not after) the close of business on July 29, 1966, upon and in the manner set forth in the Stock Warrant Agreement under which the warrants were authorized and issued. Any warrants not exercised on or prior to such date, shall become void and all rights thereunder shall cease.

SEILON, INC.
By Gordon B. Ambler, Jr.
Secretary

Dated this 5th day of July, 1966.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

BY STEVANUS M DUVALL PH D AND EVELYN M DUVALL, PH D

1 Right All adolescents have to rebel somewhat from parental authority in order to establish their own independence But there are some teenagers who are much more extreme in their rejection of their parents as persons They are ashamed of them parents or they ignore them and don't care what their mothers and fathers think of them These are youngsters who are often headed for trouble according to Professor Ivan Nye who has studied the question

2. Can any mature person improve his personality? Yes— No—

Yes provided he or she is truly mature The mature individual knows that he does not know everything This genuine humility and eagerness to improve makes him eager to learn from almost any situation he finds himself in His interests carry him out into ever widening circles As long as he lives he grows and the more he grows the better developed his personality
